

Manna Community Kitchen Summer Internship: 40th Anniversary History Project

Manna Community Kitchen is seeking 2–3 high school or college students to join our team this summer to help document the organization's history as we celebrate 40 years of service to the community.

About the Internship

Our Summer History Interns will work directly with Manna's Development Director and independently as part of a small team to collect and preserve stories, photographs, and historical materials that tell the story of Manna's impact over the past four decades.

Projects may include:

- Interviewing current and former guests, volunteers, staff, board members, and community supporters
- Researching press coverage
- Gathering photographs and other archival materials
- Helping create materials that may be used throughout our 40th anniversary celebrations.

This internship is an excellent opportunity for students interested in history, journalism, communications, nonprofit work, community engagement, or public service.

Hours

- Flexible schedule
- Approximately 40 total hours between June and August
- Hybrid format, including weekly check-in meetings and independent work

About Manna

Since 1986, Manna Community Kitchen has provided meals, connection, and support to neighbors experiencing food insecurity and hardship in Northampton. What began as a weekly community meal has grown into a multifaceted organization that serves over 70,000 meals each week with in-person meals five days a week and a drop-in Community Center providing showers, laundry, mail delivery and connection to essential services.

To Apply

Please send a brief letter of interest describing why you are interested in the internship, along with any relevant experience to Kaitlyn Ferrari- kaitlyn@mannanorthampton.org
