Guidelines for the Dinner to Benefit the Navy SEAL Foundation
Donations, Sponsorship and Silent Auction

Dinner Tickets

Individual ticket sales are not a contribution to the Navy SEAL Foundation and therefore not tax deductible as a charitable expense, but maybe deductible as a business expense. Tickets: $150 per person

Dinner Sponsorships

Sponsorships are available and include ticket(s) to the dinner.

1. $500 Sponsor: 1 Ticket
2. $1,000 Sponsor: 2 Tickets
3. $1,500 Sponsor: 3 Tickets
4. $2,000 Sponsor: 4 Tickets

- Corporate Sponsorships of the dinner are 100% deductible as a charitable expense.
- 100% of the proceeds will go to the Navy Seal Foundation.
- Checks must be made payable to the Navy SEAL Foundation.
- No credit card payments accepted for sponsorship.

Silent Auction Donated Items

Donated items for the Silent Auction are not a contribution to the Navy SEAL Foundation and therefore not tax deductible as a charitable expense, but maybe deductible as a business expense.

Silent Auction Prizes

- Silent Auction items are 100% deductible as a charitable expense.
- 100% of the proceeds will go to the Navy Seal Foundation.
- Checks must be made payable to the Navy SEAL Foundation.
- No credit card payments accepted for silent auction items.

Donations

Individual donations made payable by check to the Navy SEAL Foundation are deductible as a charitable expense. 100% of the proceeds will go to the Navy SEAL Foundation.

The Navy SEAL Foundation will distribute tax receipts to all of those that pay or contribute via check made payable to the Navy SEAL Foundation.

Please note: Credit card payments will not be accepted for sponsorship, donations or the purchase of silent auction items. Please remember to bring your checkbook. Individual tickets for the dinner may be purchased by credit card.

If you have any questions, please contact the Florida Orthopaedic Society.
Florida Orthopaedic Society 1215 E. Robinson Street, Orlando, FL 32801
Phone: (813) 948-8660
Email: fcobbe@cobbemanagement.com