2019 INFORMAL
CATALINA CRUISE

August 23 - 25

Two Harbors

The ABYC Catalina Cruise to Two Harbors August 23, 24, and 25 is going to be an informal event this year. The Cruise conflicts with the Viper 640 World Championships being held at ABYC the same weekend and many of the usual participants will be assisting with the regatta.

Friday evening cruisers can eat at the Harbor Reef Restaurant or on their boats.

Saturday afternoon the group can organize a dinghy raft-up on the west side of the Isthmus close to the beach.

Saturday evening there are barbeques and benches on the west side of the Isthmus. If they are full there are barbeques and benches behind the Harbor Reef Restaurant.

Your chairman is helping with the Viper Worlds and won't be able to attend his own cruise!
