

Working with Compassion, One Story at a Time A Report from the Southern Border

The Interfaith Immigration Support Group of Linn & Benton Counties invites you to join us,
Wednesday, October 13 at 7pm via Zoom

Maria Lourdes “Lulu” Arias Trujillo will share her experience working in Tijuana with people who have come to our US southern border to seek entry into the United States. A case worker with One Story at a Time,¹ Lulu’s work reflects the non-profit’s mission to bring humanitarian aid and hope to the most vulnerable people ... in Mexican border towns and to support the volunteers who help to provide those in need with basic necessities, education, and life-affirming opportunities.

Juan Carlos and Aracely Perla are also planning to join us. Now living in Corvallis, the Perlas inspired Lulu with their heart, determination, and courage. In turn, she supported their more than two-year struggle to seek asylum here.²

Join us to listen, to learn, and to hear about steps you can take to support these brave families and this important work!
