RABBINIC REFLECTIONS

Rabbi Rachel Salston

Shalom! As I write this, we are in the midst of Hanukkah, the holiday where we celebrate the triumph of good over evil, light over darkness. The mitzvah of Hanukkah is called, in Aramaic, pirsumei nisa, publicizing the miracle. Every song that we sing, every menorah that we light, every latke that we fry, is an expression of God's wonderful saving us from our oppressors. On Tuesday night, the 3rd night of Hanukkah, I was honored to represent our Federation's JCRC (Jewish Community Relations Council) in the public Hanukkah lighting in front of Paramus Boro Hall. Thank you to Federation and Alana Burman in particular for organizing this important display of light. It is the obligation of every Jew to put more light into the world not just physically on this Festival of Lights, but every single day, through our actions, through our hesed.

Throughout the year, so many groups in our synagogue put light into the world: Our Social Action Committee feeds hundreds of people a year at the Hackensack Shelter, our Chesed committee calls and supports those who are ill or in mourning, our Men's Progress Club and Sisterhood raise money for important causes throughout the year. Just this week, at a joyous Vodkas & Latkes party, Sisterhood collected menstrual supplies for Federation's [End] Period Poverty initiative. We are all helping in so many different ways! Kol hakavod to all of you!

I'd like to take the opportunity to tell you all about a recent light addition to our community, the Steven K. Weil Rainy Day Fund. As you may know, weeks before I officially became your rabbi, our beloved shul member Steven Weil left the world too early. Steven's funeral and shiva minyanim were the first that I officiated at at the FLJC/CBI. While I never had the chance to meet Steven, his family and friends have shared pieces of his wonderful character with me.

The retired owner of a party store, Steven was an avid golfer who loved his wife, children and grandchildren. He read haftarah on Rosh Hashanah. Amongst all that I learned, one detail stood out in particular. Steven loved to help people. If he read in the newspaper that someone in the local community had had a house fire or a storm had damaged someone's roof, he would send them funds to help out.

In honoring his memory, his wife Bena and children Michael, Danielle, Max, and Eric, and his sister Debbie Oppenheimer, decided to establish the Steven K. Weil Rainy Day Fund. With a generous donation, the Weil family created a fund for members in need of immediate assistance. This includes emergency house or auto repairs, medical bills, lifecycle expenses. If you are in need of such assistance, please contact the office or me directly. Donations to the fund are always welcome.

This fund works in parallel with my Rabbi's Discretionary Fund, which I also use to benefit our and the greater community in these ways and through increasing engagement and education. Your donations to any of the synagogue's memorial funds or the general fund are always appreciated and are one of the many ways that you as a member can enable us to all do that we do and continue living joyous dignified lives. I wish I had had the opportunity to meet Steven Weil; I am grateful for the relationships I have built with his growing family and legacy. We all have the opportunity to continue to make his memory a blessing. Thank you to Bena, Michael and Irina, Danielle and Devon, Eric and Rina, Max and Rachel, and Debbie, for everything you have given us to give to others. Happy Hanukkah and a Happy Secular New Year of 2023!

CANTORIAL CONTEMPLATIONS

Cantor Yoni Stokar

Shalom and Chodesh tov!

I hope everyone enjoyed a beautiful Chanukah filled with light and love. We now find ourselves in the month of Tevet.

Tevet shares the Hebrew root word "Tov" meaning good. So I'm wishing everyone an exceptional month filled with goodness.

Tevet is an underrated packed month, kicking off with the pinnacle days of Chanukah where we light the largest number of candles. The month then transitions into a more serious tone with the fast of the 10th of Tevet, commemorating the beginning of the siege of Jerusalem that eventually led to the destruction of the first Bet Hamikdash, two and a half years later on Tisha B'Av.

I think there's something amazing about any time of year when we get the opportunities to get "lit" and also to self reflect on personal and communal levels. And when I take a step back from this month in the context of the greater calendar, it's even more amazing looking at where the calendar is taking us with this consciousness. Shevat and Adar are months themed in planting the seeds of our spiritual and physical growth. And what better framework could we have than to be submerged in feelings of light, love and rebuilding.

I want to bless us all with a month of channeling. May we have the strength to channel the love and light into thoughts and actions of unity and rebuilding.

Cantor Yoni

UPDATED COVID POLICY

Masks are required for everyone over the age of 2 at all FLJC/CBI activities in our building. (While you are on the bimah, or eating/drinking, masks are not required.) We will also once again be setting up a section of socially-distant seating in the sanctuary.

We understand that the decision to return to mandatory masks may be unpopular with some of our members and guests, but we are trying to look out for the well-being of our entire community. COVID numbers are up significantly in recent weeks. When the numbers return to an acceptable level, we will revisit this decision.

Vaccinations are STRONGLY SUGGESTED for EVERYONE over the age of 6 months. We recommend that you get the latest COVID booster.

FLJC/CBI COVID policy is subject to change as conditions warrant.

PRESIDENTIAL PONDERINGS

Evan Marcus

Let's talk about masks.

I think we can all agree that masks stink. But what's worse than wearing a mask? Getting COVID or the flu.

On December 14, in consultation with the COVID Committee, I decided to reintroduce the mandatory mask policy here at the FLJC/CBI.

So far, to be fair, nobody has complained to me about the decision, and the events that I've attended so far (as I write this) have had excellent levels of compliance. That said, I'd still like to explain the reasoning that went into the decision.

I had been looking at the numbers; the combination of COVID, the flu, and RSV, which mostly affects children, and watching them rise. (In case you're interested, for COVID, I watch https://covidactnow.org/us/new\_jersey-nj/county/bergen\_county, and for the flu, I watch <https://healthweather.us/map/new-jersey-NJ/bergen-county-34003>.)

In the news, there are constant reports of how hospitals are having trouble keeping up with the caseload from the "triple-demic." I'm also confident that there are plenty more COVID cases than are being reported to the authorities, since it's not that novel anymore. What's more, December 2021 (one year ago) is exactly the time that we had that huge spike in COVID cases, so I concluded that it'll get worse before it gets better. I was already thinking about it, and even though I hadn't yet reached out to the committee, I was ready to.

Separately, during the week of December 5, I received an email from a member of the COVID Committee, asking me to consider making masks mandatory again. As I don't make decisions like that in a vacuum, I asked the committee to vote on this important policy change. The vote results were Yes: 5,

No: 2, Abstain: 1. (I do not get a vote.) While the COVID Committee's decisions are technically advisory only, to date I have followed their advice each time.

I then met with Rabbi Salston, Executive VP Steven Montag, and Executive Director Thorin Tritter, and we discussed it at length. The strongest argument against masks was the question about when we would stop requiring masks for good, and are we overreaching? I said that those were not my concerns. I am more concerned with the average age of our membership, and how vulnerable many of us are to these dangerous and deadly diseases, as well as how many healthy people (adults and children) were being hit hard by these diseases.

Ultimately, this is an issue about the health and safety of our congregants and our community. The risk is high, the stakes are high, and it was a relatively easy decision.

I expect that this spike will last a few weeks, and by the end of January, or mid-February at the worst, it will pass, and life will return to maskless normal. I will be watching the numbers, and when it looks safe to lift the mandatory mask mandate, I will be delighted to do so. (I hate masks as much as anyone!)

In the meantime, wear your mask in the building (unless you're eating or drinking, or actively speaking from the bimah). And if you see someone not wearing one (or not wearing one properly), please gently ask them to put it on. But let's be nice and courteous about it. When you're in a public setting, please wear it. And if you're not current on your COVID and flu vaccines, please get them taken care of, too. For yourself, and for the community.

Wishing you a happy, healthy, and safe 2023,

BOARD ROUND-UP

- The board reviewed the functioning of the night locks that have been placed on all of the interior doors of the FLJC. These were installed by Na'aleh at no cost to the FLJC and are designed to be used in a lockdown situation.
- Na'aleh will also be installing a new PA system in the building. This will also come at no cost to the FLJC but our congregation will have access to it.
- The carpets were cleaned in the large and small ballrooms.
- Repairs are being made to radiators and valves in some second floor classrooms, and the floor in the upstairs dairy kitchen.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Thorin Tritter, PhD

I wanted to write this month about generosity. A visit to the Donation page on our website shows more than a dozen different funds established by congregants over the years who provided seed money to create long-lasting endowments that support various activities in our synagogue and in the community. They are a testament to the generosity of this congregation. Rather than talking about all the different funds and offering a blur of information, I decided this month to focus on the newest fund, The Steven K. Weil Rainy Day Fund, which was established in 2022 to provide short-term monetary assistance to members of the FLJC and their families who are in crisis or experiencing acute and unexpected financial need.

Many of you will no doubt remember Steven Weil, wife of Bena and father of Michael, Danielle, Max and Eric. Steven, who passed away in 2020, was an active member of the synagogue, but was also well known for, among other things, owning The Party Box, the go-to store in Lodi for anyone hosting a birthday party, bridal shower, Bar Mitzvah, or any number of other celebrations. When Steven and Bena retired in 2018 and closed the business, newspapers described it as the closing of a “retail landmark” that was known for both its operations and for its appearance on a famous episode of The Sopranos.

Less well known was Steven and Bena’s generosity. Bena recalls that whenever Steven saw a news story about someone who was in crisis – their car caught fire, they had a family member in a hospital, they were forced out of their home – he would send a check. It didn’t matter if the family in need was Jewish, Christian, white, black, or from Mars, he would send support. But it was always anonymous. He didn’t want people to feel that they were in his debt. He just wanted to help.

According to Bena, Steven’s generous spirit came from his parents, particularly his father, and was a trait that he shared with his sister, Debbie Oppenheimer. Steven’s father emphasized to his children the importance of helping others and giving back to the community. It was a lesson that both children took to heart and which Bena was happy to embrace after marrying into the family.

When Steven passed away two years ago, Bena sought to do something that would sustain both Steven’s memory and his generosity of spirit. After many discussions with her children and Debbie, the family settled on creating The Steven K. Weil Rainy Day Fund at the Fair Lawn Jewish Center/Congregation B’nai Israel.

One of the challenges facing the synagogue in its effort to live up to Steven and Bena’s ideal is finding the people who are in need of assistance. All too often families in crisis are silent about their needs, not wanting to share bad news with those around them or embarrassed to ask for help. We hope, however, that the congregation – you – can help. If you know of a fellow congregant who is facing a crisis or who could benefit from a small financial boost to get over some difficult hump, please reach out to Rabbi Salston and let her know. Be our eyes and ears. Of course, all information will be kept confidential and all involved will be kept anonymous, but with your help the synagogue can take on the role that Steven Weil embraced, sustaining his memory and helping those in need in our community.

And, if you are interested, we welcome your contributions to further support The Steven K. Weil Rainy Day Fund. Simply click on the “Donate” tab on our website, and where prompted for the “Type” of gift, choose “22-Steven K. Weil Rainy Day Fund” from the pull down menu.

On behalf of the FLJC/CBI, I am grateful to Bena and her family for establishing this fund and look forward to sharing information about some of our other generous donors in future updates.

Wishing you all a wonderful 2023!

Thorin Tritter

VOLUNTEER DRIVERS NEEDED

Social Action is seeking volunteers to drive congregants to shul and back home for Shabbat services. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact the office at info@fljc.com or call 201-796-5040.

As we get requests, we will contact you a couple of days prior to Shabbat to confirm if we need your help and which congregant we need your help driving to the shul.
Thank you in advance for your help.

RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE HAPPY NEW YEAR – SHANAH TOVAH

Steve Montag

The New Year always is a time of reflection and a time to consider what the next year will bring. Last year, regarding January 2022, I wrote that COVID is certainly not over yet and will still affect millions of people, however we must look forward and be optimistic that we are closer to the endemic phase where we can live with this virus and proceed to a new normal life. The last year mostly did proceed that way, and we fully reopened and moved to a mask-optional mode. Unfortunately, general unmasking allowed the flu, RSV, and COVID to propagate within our community. Vaccinations have helped stem hospitalization, but still many may get sick. Due to the recent rise in Bergen County illnesses, our President, Evan Marcus, in an abundance of caution, recently announced our need to return to masking inside the building. Please do not let this be an excuse for returning to at-home only participation. I urge you all to wear your mask but come and attend the many simchas and festivities that are planned in the coming months.

On January 7th we celebrate the Bar Mitzvah of Tyler

Lipke, and January 28th we celebrate the Bar Mitzvah of Jacob Chung. January 21st is our Sisterhood Shabbat with many of our members reading Torah and leading the service. Mazal Tov to you all. We also have planned an interesting Zoom session with Rabbi Amy Levin on Sunday, Jan 8th regarding the current Masorti Movement in Israel and the impact of the recent elections (see flyer on page 20). Please join us for all of these amazing events.

The month of Shevat begins the evening of January 22nd and into January 23rd. The days are getting longer and we light candles and end Shabbat a bit later each week. Please use this month to consider your relationship with the FLJC/CBI and step up to increase your engagement, your volunteering, and your commitment to help lead us into the future. I am anticipating an exciting year with many wonderful events, but we can only be successful with everyone's participation.

I wish you all a safe, healthy, and happy holiday season and a Happy New Year.

Steve Montag

HONORING INTERNATIONAL HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY: THE EXPERIENCE OF THE LIBERATORS

SUNDAY, JANUARY 29
10:00 AM (AFTER MINYAN)

The MPC marks the 78th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz with a presentation by Thorin Tritter who will talk about the experience of soldiers who came face to face with the horrors of the Holocaust for the first time in 1945 as they began to liberate Nazi concentration camps.

This talk will explore liberation from the perspective of the Allied soldiers and discuss the way liberation changed these soldiers and the people they rescued.

Presented by Thorin Tritter

Formerly the Museum Director for the Holocaust Memorial & Tolerance Center of Nassau County

Register by Jan. 25 at info@fljc.com

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

Mark Meisel

Thank you for all your help and donations for the Hanukkah Toy Drive. We collected a number of carloads and we truly appreciate all your generosity. (See pictures below of your donations of toys for this mitzvah.) The toys get distributed through multiple charitable organizations in Bergen County. This year we ran this in parallel with the Religious School and Paramus JCC which also collected many toys. Thank you to Beth Perlman for organizing this collection.

The Social Action Committee also thanks you for your very generous donations to help us feed 150 people in our community at the Hackensack Shelter on December 22nd. Your donations of rolls, water, plasticware, salad, fruit, desserts and monetary contributions helps us buy the main meal and side dishes. We thank Benny's Luncheonette for catering the main meal.

We are in the midst of our Emergency Supply Packages collection (see flyer, right). We are creating 100 winter emergency supply packages for Meals on Wheels recipients and others supported by Jewish Family Services in our community. During the winter, inclement weather can make it impossible for them to receive their needed delivery of food. We will give each of them a bag of emergency provisions for those times. This year we are collecting monetary donations and kosher packaged goods until January 8th. There will be a bin in the lobby for drop off. Many of the recipients are Holocaust survivors and depend on Meals on Wheels for their daily sustenance. Thank you to Ilene Laufer for organizing this project.

The Social Action Committee can also help congregants in their recovery from illness when returning from the hospital or rehab facility by bringing them a Friday night meal. Please let the office know if you would like us to bring you a meal.

Thank you again for all your support!

If you are interested in joining the Social Action Committee, please let the office know or reach out to me.

Mark Meisel

Social Action Committee

This year we are collecting monetary donations and kosher packaged goods from December 16th until January 8th 2023. There will be a bin in the lobby for drop off. Many of the recipients are Holocaust survivors and depend on Meals on Wheels for their daily sustenance.

Please consider sponsoring this project with an $18.00 donation.

Checks can be sent to the office payable to FLJC/CBI with Social Action ESP in memo.

MEN'S PROGRESS CLUB

Neil Garfinkle

Shalom my friends,

When I think of December, I think of homecomings and family: Maxwell and Benjamin are home for winter break, making our family complete again, and it's been a month full of the MPC supporting our temple family.

Take a look at everything your Men's Progress Club is doing this month, and what we will continue to do into next year:

The month began with a very well attended, and very well-deserved Man of the Year celebration and award to our very own Bob Sokol! (see photos below). Congratulations and take the happy memories with you down to Florida for a few months.

We delivered Hanukkah candles to all of you, and we were proud to provide candles for each and every family of our Religious School at the Hanukkah Haggah.

Later, we hope you received another special delivery: your very own 2022-2023 MPC Phone Directory. Isn't it beautiful? Shout out to all who made the phone directory possible yet again for another year, particularly Larry Bach, Joel Ringer, Howard Kessel, and our Past President and creator of the first phone directory, Evan Marcus.

We unanimously agreed to make a $500 donation to Rabbi Roth's Holocaust Torah project. Rabbi, thank you so much for doing this important work and for educating us all!

We were also proud to support Leah and Samantha

Karetnick's B'nai Mitzvah project. The ladies walked to end Alzheimer's in honor of their grandfather, current FLJC member and Past President of the MPC, Jeffrey Kroll, affectionately known as Papa. If you would like to raise awareness and funds for Alzheimer's care, support, and research, please reach out to me, and I will let you know how.

Looking forward to January and the new year, Our Big Breakfast (and BIG food) is Sunday, January 15th, after minyan at 10:00 AM.

And Thorin Tritter wants to join in the fun! Thorin reached out to the MPC and asked if he could give a talk. Come here what he has to say on Sunday, January 29th, 10:00 AM after minyan when he speaks to us about: Remembering International Holocaust Remembrance Day: The Experience of the Liberators! (See flyer, page 7.)

See how easy it is to get involved? Thorin had an idea, he reached out, we said yes, VOILA! DONE! You should try it!

Saving maybe the best and happiest example of family for the end of this article, if you see current MPC VP for Religious Affairs Hal Fine around, wish him a hearty Mazal Tov on the engagement of his son.

If you do not see him, but would still like to congratulate him or his wife, why not turn to the Phone Directory and either call or e-mail him!

Your MPC appreciates you!

Neil Garfinkle

- Our book club discussion of The Thread Collectors was held on Sunday, November 27. Thank you to Pauline Mont for facilitating an interesting discussion about this book.
- On December 18th there was our Hanukkah Haggadah which was very well attended. This event involved many different FLJC groups. A good time was had by all. Thank you to Lily Shinkar for coordinating the donut decorating activity and to Lisa Gotlib for her assistance. Thank you to all that helped with this shul-wide event.
- On December 20th, our annual Sisterhood Vodka & Latkes evening was held at the home of Gail Rottenstrich (see photo). This was a FUN entirely social event that was open to all Sisterhood members. As the name suggests, attendees were able to partake in various vodka (and non-alcoholic) drinks as well as a variety of latkes, salads, and desserts. Thank you to Gail for your graciousness and generosity. Attendees were asked to bring some feminine products to donate to the Federation's Period Poverty program to help women who cannot afford these feminine hygiene products.

I hope you will be able to join Sisterhood in one or more of the following upcoming events:

Please contact Ilene Laufer at rflanzman@aol.com or Nina Gold at nron4@optonline.net if you would like to participate. Parts are filling up, but there are still English, Hebrew, and non-speaking parts available. Even if you are not participating, please attend this wonderful service. There will be a delicious Sisterhood-sponsored kiddush.
- February 5th on Zoom at 6:00 PM we will be having our annual Tu B'shvat Women's Seder. This is a zoom only event. Please RSVP to Tzivya at tziyvaK@gmail.com by January 29th to get a list of what you will need at your home to enhance your participation in this lovely evening.

Note that we are looking for help with our annual Mishloach Manot program. If you would like to join the committee, please contact Donna Pasternak at dpast123@aol.com or 201-791-9704.

COMMUNITY HEBREW SCHOOL OF BERGEN COUNTY

Marcia Kagedan

Shalom! December was an exciting and wonderful month in the Religious School. It started with a delightful Shabbat program for our kindergarten and 1st graders along with their families. Thank you to Morah Shoshana for teaching the children about Shabbat and preparing them for this program.

Preparations for Hanukkah were, as always, fun and educational. Each grade learned according to their level—a simple story for the youngest, historical significance and deeper messages for the oldest. We had several celebrations, including a family party at Fair Lawn on Hanukkah eve, and a rooftop candlelighting at Paramus.

Another highlight of December was our first 'Sacred Hoops' program of the year. This is a combined program of our Kadima chapter and the Fair Lawn Jewish Center. Over 30 young people enjoyed Havdalah, gym time, pizza, the game room, and desserts on a Saturday night. Another one will be planned in the next few weeks. It was quite wonderful!

January is full of smachot! Three CHSBC students will celebrate their Bnei Mitzvah at both the Jewish Community Center of Paramus and at the Fair Lawn Jewish Center.

We will also introduce our first elective program for our Tuesday students. For an hour a week for 3 consecutive weeks, the students will choose an area of study to pursue. The children will be with teachers according to their elective choices, not according to their ages. It's going to be fun and interesting to see how this goes. There will be crafts with Rabbi Salston, Chesed activities with Mrs. A, Yiddish with Morah Estelle, and food activities with Mrs Y and Morah Penina. More details and reporting next time. If it gets good reviews, we will try to squeeze a second elective season into the school calendar.

Stay warm, healthy, and safe.

Parshat Vayechi

Tyler Ari Lipke, son of Galeet & David Lipke, will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on January 7, 2023. His sister Sienna will join in the festivities.

Tyler, who celebrated his 13th birthday on December 29, is a 7th grader at Thomas Jefferson Middle School in Fair Lawn. He loves to ski, play the double French Horn, and hang out with friends after school. Tyler enjoys creating new inventions and coming up with better solutions for everyday tasks. Tyler hopes to one day pursue the occupation of engineering.

For his Bar Mitzvah project, Tyler is raising money for The Holocaust Museum Center of Tolerance & Education's Cafe Europa program in honor of his great-grandmother, who was a Holocaust survivor. He is accepting donations using this link:

Parshat Bo

Jacob Samuel Chung, son of Jenna and Richard Chung, will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on January 28, 2023. Jacob's brother Benjamin will join in the celebration.

Jacob, who turns 13 on January 12, is a 7th grader at Thomas Jefferson Middle School in Fair Lawn. He enjoys video games, reading, and baseball. He hopes to one day be a major league baseball player or a video game designer.

Jacob's maternal great-grandparents, Julia and Sam Jacobs, were both veterans of the US Armed Services and his great-grandmother was very involved with the Jewish War Veterans (JWV) organization. She served in a number of roles, ultimately being elected as JWV commander. Jacob was named in memory of his maternal great-grandparents and in their honor has decided to do a couple of things to support our active military and veterans. In the Spring, he will be partnering with the JWV to put markers and flags on graves of veterans and hopes to gather friends and family to help him. Right now, he is partnering with Operation Gratitude, an organization that sends thousands of care packages each year to deployed troops, veterans, new recruits and first responders. Of all the items included in these care packages, the most cherished are the personal letters of appreciation. Jacob is collecting letters to include in the care packages and hoping to have many to send. Please reach out to his mother at jennarchung@gmail.com if you or anyone in your family would like to write a letter for us to include and we will send you more information. Jacob is also collecting money to donate to Operation Gratitude to cover the many costs of their great work. To donate, go to: [https://giving.operationgratitude.com/

An Update from Rabbi Roth About Pacov

The Town in the Czech Republic Where Our Holocaust Memorial Torah Is From

I want to thank the following for their donations supporting the second edition of my book about the Jews of Pacov:

Mrs. Harriet Goldberg
Mrs. Karen Koblitz
Mr. and Mrs. Evan Marcus
The Men's Progress Club
The FLJC/CBI Sisterhood

You can send donations made out to the Fair Lawn Jewish Center/Congregation B'nai Israel. Put "Pacov Book" on the check. The donations will be added to the Cecile Roth Memorial Fund, a fund that is dedicated to recalling the Holocaust, and then used to pay for the book's publication.

The following is a report from Karen Koblitz about the Commemoration of the 80th Anniversary of the Deportation of the Jews of Pacov to Terezin

1942 – 2022 – We Remember
November 11 – 14, 2022, Tikkun Pacov
Pacov, Czech Republic

The Tikkun Pacov weekend commemorative event, "1942-2022 – We Remember," was extraordinary, as guests from Britain, the Czech Republic, United States, Canada, Germany, Switzerland, and Sweden were in attendance. There were residents of Pacov and the surrounding areas interested in learning about the former Jewish community, descendants of Pacov survivors, descendants of families that had left the Czech Lands and immigrated to other countries, including Britain, Canada and the United States before the war. It was impressive to have such a diverse group come together to remember the once vibrant Pacov Jewish community.

Pavel Tychtl and Karen Koblitz outside the Pacov Synagogue

Sunday afternoon was dedicated to the visit of Pacov principal Jewish heritage sites — the Jewish cemetery, former Jewish school, and the synagogue. The visitors had an opportunity to view the exhibition of photographs of former Pacov residents which was created from a pre-war family album in the former Jewish school and the synagogue as a part of "1942-2022 - We Remember" project.

Saturday evening, the testimony of Věra Ledererová was screened in the Pacov Community Center. Ledererová was one of a handful of Pacov survivors. The Center's auditorium was filled to capacity as 120 people were seated. The film was translated for the English speakers in the audience. The residents of Pacov and the surrounding community had shown up to hear Ledererová speak about her experience during the Holocaust and how she was able to survive the horrors that left her and her husband, Egon Kaufmann, the only survivors of both of their families. Ledererová and Kaufmann spent a few years after the war in Pacov and then left for Prague. They changed their surname to Kolář, which was the last name given to Ledererová on the false documents that she had been given when she escaped the Bergen Belsen Death March. She had been hidden by family friends for the remainder of the war. It was a very emotional screening.

After the screening, a panel assembled on the stage made up of descendants of Holocaust survivors, including a Holocaust survivor and moderator, Pavel Tychtl. Stefan Bader, who had come from Sweden, spoke about his father, Hanuš Bader, who immigrated to Sweden after the war and wrote a book called, "And Yet I Live," published in German, Swedish, and Czech. Bader added a touch of humor, in recounting that his father would reply, when asked about the number tattooed on his arm, that it was a direct line to Hitler.

Jan Kolář, son of Věra Ledererová, was quite emotional when speaking about his mother, whose testimony he had just witnessed. Michal Arend, Chair of the Černovice Jewish Memorial Association and a member of the Tikkun Pacov Association, shared how his family survived from neighboring Černovice. He now resides in Switzerland. Dr. Michaela Vidláková, herself a Holocaust survivor from Prague, shared what life was like in Terezín for her, when she was six years old, and for her mother and father. Just as they were about to be transported to Auschwitz, the war ended.

Sunday evening's program opened with the premiere screening of "A Sacred Space, Rebuilding a Memory," the movie that many of you were part of. Dale Bluestein assembled this film in a little over three months. He is a gifted storyteller and filmmaker. The film was what I had envisioned when the idea first came to mind. The audience was very complimentary regarding the film. (We are going to screen the film in Fair Lawn, on a day to be determined.)

Afterwards, the Milton Keynes Torah Scroll (a Torah from Pacov that is on permanent loan to a synagogue in Great Britain) was brought onto the stage, removed from its covering, and held up for the audience to view.

MST Torah Scroll #970 was rolled, covered, and carried from the Pacov Community Center, followed by a candlelight procession under the darkness of the evening, led by members of the Milton Keynes congregation, for two blocks to the Pacov Synagogue, an empty building but for a single light at the far end of the interior and a series of benches.

L-R: Karen Koblitz and Priscilla Dorrance uncover the Milton Keynes Torah Scroll

The crowd stood with candles in hand and listened to Rabbi David Maxa of Etz Chajim Synagogue in Prague give a service to bless the scroll and the work of Tikkun Pacov in restoring the synagogue, and for continuing programming to remember the vibrant Jewish community that once lived in Pacov and the surrounding communities. During the service, standing within a few feet of Rabbi Maxa was Stanley Cohen, a member of the Milton Keynes congregation, proudly holding MST Scroll #970. Voices of prayer resounded in the building for the first time in over 80 years.

Sunday evening ended with well wishes from the

Rabbi David Maxa blesses the Milton Keynes Torah Scroll held by Stanley Cohen, as well as the work by Tikkun Pacov mayor of Pacov followed by a multimedia presentation, "When Memory Meets Art," created by the Israeli team of Effi Shoshani and Raquel Orehsztajn. The evening highlighted the art and poetry of the children of Terezín. The children's choir from the Primary Art School in Chrudim, Czech Republic, sang songs, lyrics from the poetry of children written while in Terezín, and put to music composed by Shoshani. The late 18th century Czech Broučci/Fireflies Fairy Tale, which was dramatized and performed at the Terezín camp, was presented through film, and told through song and images of children's art from Terezín.
