

Nassau Queens
Performing Provider System

An Alliance for a
Healthy Community

Meet Our Newest NQP Project Management Office Team Members

Tannasia Gonzalez, Manager of Quality and Data Reporting

Tannasia Gonzalez joins NQP as Manager of Quality and Data Reporting and is responsible for data collection, analysis, reporting and submission of DSRIP clinical performance metrics. Prior to joining NQP, Mrs. Gonzalez was a Senior Project Manager at Healthix, Inc. where she managed client integrations and projects, oversaw the data quality program and designed and built the database used to generate Healthix's on-demand and filterable Data Source Grid (DSG), showing the data elements being sent to Healthix from its participants. Prior to joining Healthix, she served as Director of Data Management, CQI and Regulatory Affairs for St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital Center's HIV/AIDS Center, where she oversaw the Data and Systems unit, responsible for 95% of the Center's external and internal data reporting requirements, managed the CQI Program and designed and built the Center's "Data Mall," a benchmarking and population management tool based on NYS HIVQual indicators. Mrs. Gonzalez has a Master of Business Administration degree from Baruch College and a Bachelor of Science degree from Pace University.

Hilary Corrigan, Senior Project Manager

Hilary Corrigan joins NQP as a Senior Project Manager where she is responsible for managing the day-to-day activities and operations of large, complex and strategically significant projects. Ms. Corrigan joins NQP from Athena Health where she was a Senior Program Manager who, in addition to other responsibilities, worked on enhancing the effectiveness of Athena's EHR across medical specialties and care settings. She also held positions at the American Board of Internal Medicine Foundation, and CIR/SEIU Healthcare where she was the National Director of Quality Improvement and Patient Safety. Ms. Corrigan has a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial and Labor Relations from Cornell University.

Continued on next page.

Sarit Conboy, Project Manager

Sarit Conboy joins NQP as a Project Manager and is responsible for managing project activities and operations. Mrs. Conboy joins NQP from Northwell Health where she was a Senior Analyst and a Project Manager for projects and systems related to Patient Experience and Employee Engagement. Prior to Northwell, she worked as a Business Analyst and Financial Analyst. Mrs. Conboy has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from Binghamton University, and a Project Management Professional Certification (PMP) from the Project Management Institute.

Nuzhat Quaderi, Project Coordinator

Nuzhat Quaderi joins NQP as a Project Coordinator and is responsible for providing project support and organization. Prior to joining NQP, Ms. Quaderi was a consultant for the Institute for Suburban Health Equity and served as a Community Organizer and Communications Director for ERASE Racism. Ms. Quaderi has a Master of Public Health degree from Hofstra University, a Bachelor of Science degree from Binghamton University, and is a Certified Health Education Specialist.

