Hello, Third-Grade Families!

Parent-teacher conferences will be held on October 11-12th. Your lead teacher will be meeting with every family in lieu of lengthy written evaluations. Zoom appointments will be available on the 11th while in-person appointments will be available on the 12th. Please be aware that your lead teacher may specifically request to meet with you in person on the 12th. Keep an eye out for an email inviting you to sign up for a timeslot.

Parents are warmly invited and encouraged to visit the classroom as a guest reader on or around your student's birthday as a way of celebrating their special day. We also welcome parents as guest readers throughout the year. Contact your lead teacher to set up a time to be the guest reader for the day.

Finally, please go through your scholar's backpack with them regularly. Be sure to remove any graded work and double-check whether there are any assignments in their backpack that they forgot to turn in. Our scholars are building responsibility and autonomy, and we would appreciate your support as your scholars grow in these areas.

Yours in the pursuit of Truth, Goodness, and Beauty,
Mrs. Daglow, 3D Lead Teacher
