

SAGES News

July 31, 2018

If you want to reserve a niche in the Columbarium please check at the church office for the proper paper work. Thanks to our Columbarium Committee whose members are Bob Richardson, Mary Leigh Beers and Josh Brown.

Seventeen SAGES had a wonderful time last Tuesday enjoying the Cumberland County Playhouse's production of "Legally Blonde." Lunch was Dutch treat at the Cumberland State Park at 11:00 A.M. The matinee was at 1 PM. We returned to Murfreesboro at 6:30 P.M. There will be another trip to the Playhouse later. Please watch the newsletter for information.

Noel and Laura Hinote and others met with a noted travel agent last Wednesday. Hopefully, there will be a report at the next Sages meeting.

The SAGES Ministry Team will meet Monday, August 6 at 9:30 AM. In room 503-505. Note this change from the second Monday to the first Monday.

SAGES have a trip planned to the Civil War remembrance at Button Willow on August 10. The bus will leave at 9:00 AM. Cost for the trip is $39.95 which cover lunch and the play. There will be a $5 charge for the bus. Please check in the office to make reservations.

We're all set to attend the Festival of Wisdom and Grace at Lake Junaluska, NC, Monday, August 13 through Thursday, August 16. The theme is "The Wise Shall Shine." We will leave promptly at 8:00 A.M. on Monday from underneath the canopy at the church office. We have a full bus load going to the Festival.

The Dementia/Alzheimer's Support group will met in 1203 on August 23 at 1:30 P.M.

For SAGES who would like to attend the UMM meeting it will be this Saturday, August 4 at 7:30 A.M. There is breakfast and a program.

Adventures in Learning will be held again this year at First United Methodist Church, Murfreesboro, on the mornings of September 10, 17, 24. This year there are thirteen classes to choose from. Registration blanks are in the church office. Please register as soon as possible.