

SAGES News

May 22, 2018

SAGES will be attending the Festival of Wisdom and Grace at Lake Junaluska, NC, Monday, August 13 through Thursday, August 16. The theme is "The Wise Shall Shine." The total cost for the program and lodging is $374 for doubles. The deposit is $200 per person. If you need a registration blank, please call the church office (615-893-3455). When you register, please note that you are from St. Mark's. Attendees can choose 3 of 8 workshops which are identified in the registration info. Cost for riding the bus is $15.00.

SAGES had a marvelous time touring the Tennessee Governor's Mansion on Thursday, May 17.

The Alzheimer's/Dementia Support Group is May 24 at 1:30 P.M. in Room 1203.

Fifteen tickets to the Cumberland County Playhouse production of "Legally Blonde" on Tuesday, July 24, have been reserved. The tickets are $29.00 with a bus fee of $5.00. The show is at 1 P.M. Lunch will be at 11:00 A.M. at the Cumberland Mountain State Park (Dutch Treat). The bus will leave the church at 8:15 A.M. on Tuesday, July 24.

The Face to Face Encounter #8 for SAGES 60 and over is now completed. Thanks for everyone who participated.

You're encouraged to attend "The Ministry To The Forgotten," a five-week workshop related to Alzheimer's and Dementia. Sandy Keysaer, R.N., is our resource person, with Noel Hinote as her Sages' representative. The programs are from 6-7:15 P.M. in rooms 402-404 on the remaining Wednesdays, May 23, 30 and June 6. We are enjoying video visits by Bishop Ken Carder.

Our SAGES will be helping to provides meals for the Project Transformation teams this summer.

It's not too early to make your reservations for our trip to the Botanical Gardens in Huntsville, Alabama, June 22. Look for the book in the office and register.

Sages will meet at 9:30 on June 11 in room 503-505.

Noel and Laura Hinote, Jim and Trish Clardy, and Craig and Stephanie Goff will represent the SAGES at the Golden Cross Dinner at Annual Conference on Wednesday, June 13.