

Hello!

I hope all of you had a wonderful holiday full of gratitude and delicious turkey and fixings. Just because thanksgiving is over, doesn't mean the holidays are. We have a few things coming up in the life of the youth group that you all should be aware of.

On December 8th, we will be taking a trip to Lebanon to see the Dancing Lights of Christmas! We will be leaving here right at 5 that evening and hope to be back by 7. The event itself is no charge, but we will be going out for food, so bring money for dinner.

The following week, the 15th, we will be having a Christmas Party! If you are attending the Christmas party, please let me know ASAP so we know how many to have food for. We will be doing a white elephant gift exchange as well! Each youth participating should bring a gift that is not gender specific and less than twenty dollars. The gift should also be appropriate and should not contain live animals (yes, there is a reason I have to clarify that).

After the 15th, we will take a holiday break for Sunday night youth. We will begin meeting again on January 12th!

Also coming up is the Merry Mission Marketplace. This year, the youth will have a booth set up where we will be selling popcorn. That will be on December 4th at 6 p.m. We would love to have as many of you there as possible to help out at our booth, but also to help out other vendors as well.

As always, thank you all so much for your continued support of myself and this amazing ministry. If there is anything you all are interested in knowing or doing, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Blessings and Peace,
David Cowan
