

From the Pastor

April 24, 2018

A bush was burning in the desert. The fire was not going out. A shepherd in the vicinity thought it was a strange sight. It caught his attention and he went over to investigate. As he drew close to the flames he heard the voice of God speak to him. Afterwards, the life of that shepherd, whose name was Moses, was never the same.

What about you? Have you noticed any strange sights lately? What or who has your attention? Could it be that the same God who spoke to Moses and sent him on a mission of liberation has something to tell you and me?

Sometimes I wonder if Moses ever wished his curiosity wouldn't have gotten the best of him that day and that he had just left that "strange sight" alone. However, once he heard that voice speak to him, his life and the life of his people, was never the same again.

What if we were to commit to listening for God's voice and direction in all the places we go? Sure God speaks to us during worship and in bible study; but we might also hear God's voice in surprising ways when we least expect it. One thing is for sure, when we do hear God's voice, wherever and however we hear it, our lives and the lives of those around us are never the same. Praise the name of God who still speaks to us and sets us on a path of liberation!

Blessings,
