

“two or more: life in community” St. Mark’s Women’s Retreat 2017

Friendship and laughter, the beauty of God’s creation, and the warmth of the Holy Spirit all come together on the mountain at St. Mark’s Women’s Retreat! Please mark your calendar for Friday/Saturday, March 3-4, 2017!

This year, St. Mark’s Women’s Retreat will be joining with the Tennessee Conference Women’s Retreat, led by Rachel Armstrong who, along with her husband Jacob, started Providence UMC in Mount Juliet. St. Mark’s women of all ages along with their friends are invited to participate in this special event at Beersheba Springs Assembly!

St. Mark’s participants will stay together as a group in Turner Lodge. On the registration form, please note that you are a St. Mark’s member and list your roommate selection.

Registration forms are available HERE. Each St. Mark’s participant will receive a $15 scholarship. Please make your check payable to Beersheba for $53 dollars (double occupancy room) or $73 dollars (single occupancy room).

If you would like help finding a carpool or would prefer to ride the church van (minimum 8 riders), or just have a questions about this special event, please email Rev. Touchton at martha@stmarkstn.org. See you on the mountain!
