

SAGES News

May 8, 2018

SAGES will be attending the Festival of Wisdom and Grace at Lake Junaluska, NC, Monday, August 13 through Thursday, August 16. The theme is "The Wise Shall Shine." The total cost for the program and lodging is $374 for doubles. The deposit is $200 per person. If you need a registration blank, please call the church office (615-893-3455). When you register, please note that you are from St. Mark's. The rooms are reserved and you will be assured of a room if you get your registration in soon. Attendees can choose 3 of 8 workshops which are identified in the registration info. Cost for riding the bus is $15.00.

Sages will be touring the Tennessee Governor's Mansion on Thursday, May 17. The bus will leave the church at 8:15 a.m. Please make your reservation in the church office.

The Alzheimer's/Dementia Support Group is May 24 at 1:30 P.M. in Room 1203.

Fifteen tickets to the Cumberland County Playhouse production of "Legally Blonde" on Tuesday, July 24, have been reserved. The tickets are $29.00 with a bus fee of $5.00. The show is at 1 P.M. Lunch will be at 11:00 A.M. at the Cumberland Mountain State Park (Dutch Treat). The bus will leave the church at 8:15 A.M. on Tuesday, July 24.

Please continue to be in prayer for The Face to Face Encounter for Sages 60 and over which will end this week.

Thanks to all the Sages who attended the UMM gathering at Blackman United Methodist Church on Saturday. It was a great day., May 5 at 8:00 A.M.

You're encouraged to attend "The Ministry To The Forgotten," a five-week workshop related to Alzheimer's and Dementia. Sandy Keysaer, R.N., is our resource person, with Noel Hinote as her Sages' representative. The programs will be from 6-7:15 P.M. in rooms 402-404 on Wednesday, May 9, 16, 23, 30 and June 6. We will have video visits by Bishop Ken Carder.

Our Sages Ministry Team will meet Monday, May 14 at 9: 30 A.M. in Room 503-505.