

Adult Discipleship Special Event
CULTIVATING A THEOLOGY AND LIFE OF GENEROSITY

with Rev. Dr. David Comperry
9:15 - 10:15 a.m. Sunday, November 16
in the Sanctuary

During this gathering, we will explore how generosity, grounded in God's nature, shapes both our faith and daily living. We will consider biblical teachings on God's grace and discover practical ways to live generously—through our time, talents, resources, and gifts that can have an impact for generations to come—so that our lives reflect God's love, strengthens communities, and participates in God's ongoing work in the world.

David Comperry is a retired Elder of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference of the United Methodist Church. In 2017, after serving 45 years as a pastor of churches in both the legacy Tennessee and Memphis Conferences, David joined the staff of the United Methodist Foundation of the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Conference. As a part time Field Representative of the Foundation, David visits local churches, assisting them in designing and implementing effective stewardship and investment strategies as well as promoting stewardship as a vital part of faithful discipleship.

David's father, W.D. Comperry, was an Elder in the Legacy Tennessee Conference. David received his B.A. from Vanderbilt University and his Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees from the Candler School of Theology of Emory University. While at Emory, he met Nancy Newton whom he married 55 years ago; together they have two adult daughters. David and Nancy currently live in Jackson, TN where David also serves as president of the local Rotary Club.
