

SAGES News

July 17, 2018

The St. Mark's Columbarium has now been dedicated. And the first two services of inurnment will be held this weekend. The first Service of Inurnment in the Columbarium will be for Dr. George Beers on Saturday, July 21 at 10:00 A.M. The next service for Judy McClaran will be on Sunday, July 22, at 2:00 P.M. Everyone is invited to both of these services.

If you want to reserve a niche in the Columbarium please check at the church office for the proper paper work. Thanks to our Columbarium Committee whose members are Bob Richardson, Mary Leigh Beers and Josh Brown. Also we're grateful for the leadership our Trustees with Kenny Luse, Chair.

Seventeen Sages will be going to the Cumberland County Playhouse's production of "Legally Blonde" on Tuesday, July 24. The church bus will leave at 8:15 AM. Lunch will be Dutch treat at the Cumberland State Park at 11:00 A.M. The matinee begins at 1 PM.

Sue Jones, Noel and Laura Hinote, and Jim Clardy will meet with a noted travel agent on Wednesday, July 25 at 1:30 P.M. to discuss some future travel offerings.

The Alzheimer's/Dementia Support Group will meet on Thursday, July 26 at 1:30 P.M.

The SAGES Ministry Team will meet Monday, August 6 at 9:30 AM. In room 503-505.

SAGES have a trip planned to the Civil War remembrance at Button Willow on August 10. The bus will leave at 9:00 AM. Cost for the trip is $39.95 which cover lunch and the play. There will be a $5 charge for the bus. Please check in the office to make reservations.

We're all set to attend the Festival of Wisdom and Grace at Lake Junaluska, NC, Monday, August 13 through Thursday, August 16. The theme is "The Wise Shall Shine." We will leave promptly at 8:00 A.M. on Monday from underneath the canopy at the church office. We have a full bus load going to the Festival.

Another reminder: The SAGES trip to the Botanical Gardens in Huntsville, Alabama, (which was rained out) is in the process of being rescheduled.