November 2022

INSTITUTO de CULTURA PUERTORRIQUEÑA

Monthly newsletter

TUFIÑO EXHIBITION

We join the commemoration of the centenary of Rafael Tufiño's birth with this exhibition that brings together a selection of works on paper, paintings, drawings, and sketches. Some of these unique pieces, bequeathed by the master, are part of the ICP National Collection.

HUMBERTO MARTÍNEZ IS THE NEW TROVA CHAMPION IN PUERTO RICO

Humberto Martínez was the champion of the 54th ICP National Trova Contest, which was held in the Plaza de la Trova de Comerío. It is the third time that the winner, a native of Aibonito, has repeated the feat since 2018. The champion was followed by Jonathan Nieves in second place and Guersom Báez in third. The troubadours Víctor M. Reyes and Ricardo Villanueva occupied the fourth and fifth place, respectively.

CENTRO PR

Hunter College's Center for Puerto Rican Studies launched a new documentary series on contemporary colonialism in Puerto Rico titled: "Puerto Rican Voices: Living Under Austerity." This new season investigates various aspects of modern colonialism in Puerto Rico and seeks to build a bridge between Puerto Ricans and the diaspora.

WE HONOR MASTER MYRNA CASAS!

The executive director, Carlos Ruiz Cortés, gave a minute of applause to the deceased actress. Rest in peace!

AGREEMENT

The Department of Education and the Institute of Puerto Rican Culture signed an agreement to encourage student visits to museums.

RESILIENCE THROUGH THE ARTS

Disaster Recovery with Instituto de Cultura Puertorriqueña.

Tap photo for more information.

We celebrate the first "Indie Fest" with 12 artistic presentations from the "indie" scene in Puerto Rico. The musical event was free of charge and was held as part of the activities of the "Stand Up Paddleboard and Paddleboard" World Championship.

Ernesto Rentas Torres, director of the ICP Publications and Recordings Program (La Editorial), together with archaeologist Miguel Rodríguez, presented the Catalog of the ICP Archaeological Collection as part of the Puerto Rican Department of Education celebration.

As part of the celebration of the Puerto Rican Week, we received students at our Caguana Ceremonial Park in Utuado.

The Historical Archives Week was celebrated from November 14-17 with activities from November 14 to 17. All programming was broadcast simultaneously on the ICP's Facebook page.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Click the photo to see our events.

CULTURAL PR
INSTITUTO de CULTURA PUERTORRIQUEÑA

CulturalPR.com is a platform designed to promote and search for events in Puerto Rico and the diaspora. Click photo and learn more about culturalpr.com.

gia
Grantmakers in the Arts
Supporting a Creative America

IFACCA
International Federation of Arts Councils and Culture Agencies

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT for the ARTS arts.gov