

Opening Conversations for Interfaith Families Raising Jewish Children November 16 & 23, 9-11am in the Social Hall

Interfaith parents with children in our Lower School are invited to join Rabbi Blumberg for open conversation about raising children in families with one Jewish parent and one parent of another faith (or no particular faith). Meet and learn from other interfaith parents in our community in a welcoming, non-judgmental space, while enjoying coffee and bagels. Both parents are strongly encouraged to attend; please RSVP to Rabbi Blumberg: rabbi@tempbetham.org
