

"Why Are You a Reform Jew?"

Sometimes we should pause to analyze why we do what we do and evaluate what we are.

Would you say that you are a Reform Jew because:

- a) your parents were
- b) you find it the easiest way to identify as a Jew in the modern world
- c) you can't read Hebrew and think it is too late to learn
- d) you are too lazy to live according to strict Jewish laws
- e) all of the above
- f) none of the above

What makes you proud of the history and current strengths of Reform Judaism?

Come to the study session on Yom Kippur afternoon and share your thoughts.
