Do You Know A Hero?

Do you know a hero-someone who has saved a life, made our community a safer place or gone above and beyond to help someone in need?

Each year, the Ohio River Valley American Red Cross presents awards to local heroes who saved lives, exemplified the Red Cross mission or made significant, positive differences in their community in the areas of emergency response, disaster preparedness and prevention.

The heroes will be recognized at the Red Cross Heroes Breakfast on August 16, 2018 at the Friends Community Center.

Nominations are due no later than Friday July 1, 2018. When nominating groups; at least one individual must reside in Adams, Brown, Lawrence, Jackson, Pike or Scioto Counties. The act of heroism must have occurred after January 1, 2018 or be ongoing. Please submit this form or email your nomination by this date. You may also acquire an application at the ORV Red Cross Facebook page: www.facebook.com/ORVredcross.

NOTE: Heroes come in many shapes and sizes, in the past we have honored individuals, groups, adults, children and even pets. We appreciate creative nominations!
