The Bedrock of southern Ohio is about to get Shaken, Rattled and Rolled like these Appalachian hills have never seen before when Pike County's hometown heroes, Pure Prairie League and Lucasville's own Josh Stewart Band return to Pike County, for the 48th Annual Dogwood Festival, in Piketon, Ohio where they will mix it up, live onstage.

Josh will include his new single, Crazy, he recently introduced to a packed WHS stage crowd at his release party, where he was accompanied by Polarity, Waverly's acapella singing sensation that will also take the Dogwood Festival stage first.

Later that evening, after Josh finishes his set, the true roots of Pike County's, country rock return home, when RCA Recording Artist, Pure Prairie League steps onstage, with veterans Donnie Lee Clark, Mike "Prairie Dog" Reilly, Scott Thompson and John David Call.

And you never know who or what surprises might be in store that evening, when the boys of Pure Prairie League, return home, to where it all began, in Pike County.
