FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Adena Pike Medical Center Gala celebrates 'Havana Nights'

WAVERLY, OH (May 7, 2024) – When trying to find the best nightlife in the world, many feel you need look no further than the energy that flows in the clubs and streets of Havana.

This year's Adena Pike Medical Center Gala, "Havana Nights," will look to capture that energy by providing a high-octane evening of entertainment while raising funds to further enhance care for patients and their families in and around Pike County.

With catering provided by The Scioto Ribber, the chance to participate in live and silent auctions, and the Bluewater Kings Band from Columbus bringing its high-energy music to the proceedings, the evening is sure to be one not to be missed.

WHAT: Adena Pike Medical Center Gala, "Havana Nights"

WHEN: 6 to 10 p.m. Saturday, July 13

WHERE: Twin Lakes Resort, 273 Tackett Road, Piketon

COST: Tickets are $100 each

As attendees are having a great time at the Adena Health Foundation-sponsored event, they can also enjoy the satisfaction of knowing they are playing a valuable role in building upon the quality health care and overall experience patients and their families have come to expect from Adena Pike Medical Center. This year's gala proceeds will help with purchase of additional equipment for the emergency department, inpatient rooms, rehabilitation services, and nursing, lab and imaging services.

Tickets and event sponsorships may be ordered online by visiting Adena.org/apmcgala.
