Dawn Bryan

Kristin Lindholm Gumminger is the Director of Women's Ministry and Community Life at Trinity Community Church in Libertyville. Kristin is also Professor Emerita of Communication from Trinity International University where she was awarded the President's Prize for Excellence in Teaching and the Regents Prize for Distinguished Performance. Kristin's passion is training and encouraging women as they follow Christ and use their gifts in the Lord's service.

Dawn Bryan has seen God's faithfulness through many seasons of life — as a teacher, a missionary with SIM in Ethiopia for twenty-four years, a leader of women's groups, a corporate consultant, and a trained coach. She is married to a New Testament scholar and is mom to three grown sons. Dawn's greatest joy is gathering women who are truly for one another — marked by camaraderie and generosity rather than competition — as they cheer each other on in following Christ and living with purpose.
