

What Could A Living Shoreline at Wagon Hill Farm Look Like?

LIVING SHORELINE: A shoreline stabilization technique that utilizes a variety of structural and organic materials such as wetland plants, submerged aquatic vegetation, oyster reefs, coir fiber logs, sand fill, and stone (NOAA).

View of the Wagon Hill Farm Shoreline from the Oyster River

This poster was prepared by Strafford Regional Planning Commission for the Town of Durham.

Wagon Hill Farm Image Credit: Craig Stevens, DCAT 22 Coordinator

Vegetation Image Credits : Spartina Alterniflora - <https://zotoli.wordpress.com/saltmarshes/spartina-alterniflora-zone-2/>
Spartina Patens - <https://gobotany.newenglandwild.org/species/spartina/patens/>
Grass - <http://garymayers.com/photoshop-tutorial-adding-grass-to-an-image/>

Project Partners + Credits

