UPCOMING SERVICES

UPCOMING EVENTS

ADULT EDUCATION

ONLINE - Passover: Teachings & Practices of the Festival of Freedom with Rabbi K'vod Wieder Tuesday, March 24 at 7pm

This session will examine some of the core insights of the holiday about freedom and the ritual practices that are associated with the holy day. In addition to intellectual understandings, we will introduce some practical ideas to make our seders more meaningful. Visit our website for the link to our virtual classroom.

ONLINE-Shabbat: Traditional and Creative Observance with Rabbi K'vod Wieder and Cantor Emerita and Interim Clergy Shula Kalir-Merton April 14, 28

Shabbat is more than a day of rest—it is day of increased awareness, renewal, and fulfillment. Our tradition has deep insights into how to make Shabbat a regular source of strength and connection in our lives. In these two sessions, we will learn traditional Shabbat practices and how they help us engage deeper with ourselves and with each other. We will also explore how creative Shabbat observance embodies the spirit of our tradition as it meets us in the 21st century. Visit our website for the link to our virtual classroom.
