

PROCUREMENT DAY

DECEMBER 12, 2018

Saskatchewan Procurement Day

Registration Now Open!

December 12, 2018 | Saskatoon

Looking for new opportunities? Planning your business for the year ahead?

Register today to reserve your spot for Saskatchewan's first-ever Procurement Day!

This is the only construction focused procurement forum in the province – bringing the construction community and public and private infrastructure owners together to discuss capital plans and procurement policies.

This is your chance to connect with both key owner representatives and construction businesses to develop the valuable relationships that can drive your business to the next level.

Time will be set aside for structured networking to help you make the right connections.

Over lunch, attendees will hear an expert panel discuss the Saskatchewan economy moving into 2019. The first inductees into the Saskatchewan Construction Hall of Fame will also be announced.

Seating is limited. Tickets to spend the day with owners and key industry partners are only are $50. Secure your spot before it's too late!

Owners in attendance include (but are not limited to):
