

Penn State Schuylkill Career Development Center Presents

CAREER

CHAT

Marcel Smith

Penn State, '14

Thursday, February 16th

12:20 to 1:10 p.m.

101 Classroom Building

Marcel Smith began his Penn State journey here at Penn State Schuylkill in 2010, he then continued his time at Penn State Berks and later finished his degree at University Park in 2014 earning his Bachelor of Arts in Theatre.

During his years at Penn State, Marcel founded The Next Level Glee Club, choreographed for the TNL Dance squad, participated in The Nittany Players, Quiet Storm Step Team and Fatal Attraction Modeling.

In 2018, Marcel became one of the first male dancers to be on a co-ed NBA dance team. After 4 years with the Wizards Dancers, he became the first male captain of the team. Currently, Marcel is the Social Media Manager & Content Creator for The Washington Wizards Entertainment and a Theatre Arts Teacher at Georgetown Day School in Washington, D.C.

Marcel says "When it comes to navigating an artistic profession, post college, the path is not always easy to find, nor is it set in stone. I'm grateful to have found my way and be able to trail blaze a path for those interested in similar opportunities."

PennState
Schuylkill

Attend Career Chats in person or online, please contact the Penn State Schuylkill Career Development Center at 570-385-6222

To register, contact Rosalie Yeager at ras901@psu.edu