What a lovely night we had at the Arts in Education (AIE) and Community Arts Development (CAD) Grants Reception, on November 12th, at the Old Waldorf School. I tried to get around to visit with every group, but there were so many friendly folks to see. I know I missed a couple of groups. If you were one of those groups, I'm sorry I didn't get a chance to say, "Hi."

We were favored to have the Flute Choir of Southern Maryland on hand at the reception; they were delightful. The desserts were, of course, delicious, and the decorations were lovely, as always.

If you know a student graduating this year, from one of Charles County's seven public high schools or St. Mary's Ryken High School pursuing an arts-related major at a four-year university, time is running out to apply for the CCAA Arts Scholarship. They are worth $2,000 this year. The deadline is 12:00 PM, December 21, 2022. Details can be found on our web site.

As things wind down at the end of 2022, I'd like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a Happy Holiday Season, on behalf of the Charles County Arts Alliance. We can't wait to see you in 2023.

Cordially,

KEITH LINVILLE
PRESIDENT, CHARLES COUNTY ARTS ALLIANCE

Hello! Charles County Arts Community and Happy Holidays

WOW! I am so impressed with the talent, comradeship, and dedication to create, in our community.

The Artsfest was my first event in adjusting to my role for the Alliance, and the quality of work from the performers, visual artists, woodcrafters, literary artists, and even a culinary presentation. It was a great to see everyone coming together and having a good time.

I was then able to go to the furthest part of Southern Maryland to the Nanjemoy Community Center to see our first ArtsCamp, spreading the visual, literary and performing arts knowledge to the next generation. The students were excited, vibrant and creative. It has given me much joy and inspiration to see the impact of the arts while working with the CCAA.

I really see that the arts community is something we all need to have a hand in. The arts alliance enhances and embraces the fundamentals of being a creator. We reach out to and support so many other organizations within the Southern Maryland area that give their time, educate, come together and create, helping to build a strong arts community.

I am happy to have shared this time and given service to our community in order to make "Charles County the Place to be for the Arts".

Cordially yours,
ISIA WASHINGTON
PROGRAM SPECIALIST, CHARLES COUNTY ARTS ALLIANCE

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF NANCY OWENS:
SOLO SHOW
OCTOBER 17 TO JANUARY 10, 2023

I was born in La Plata, MD and graduated from La Plata High School. After retiring in 1990 from the Navy base in Indian Head, I felt the need to do something artistic. I took classes and did quilting and machine embroidery designs for ten years. After accomplishing everything I wanted to do in sewing, I decided to learn how to paint. I started taking classes with various local groups and national organizations in oils, acrylics, watercolor and pen and ink.

One of my favorite experiences in painting was having my Christmas ornament selected to be on the 2004 White House Christmas tree. I attended the reception at the White House for the dedication of this magnificent tree in the Blue Room.

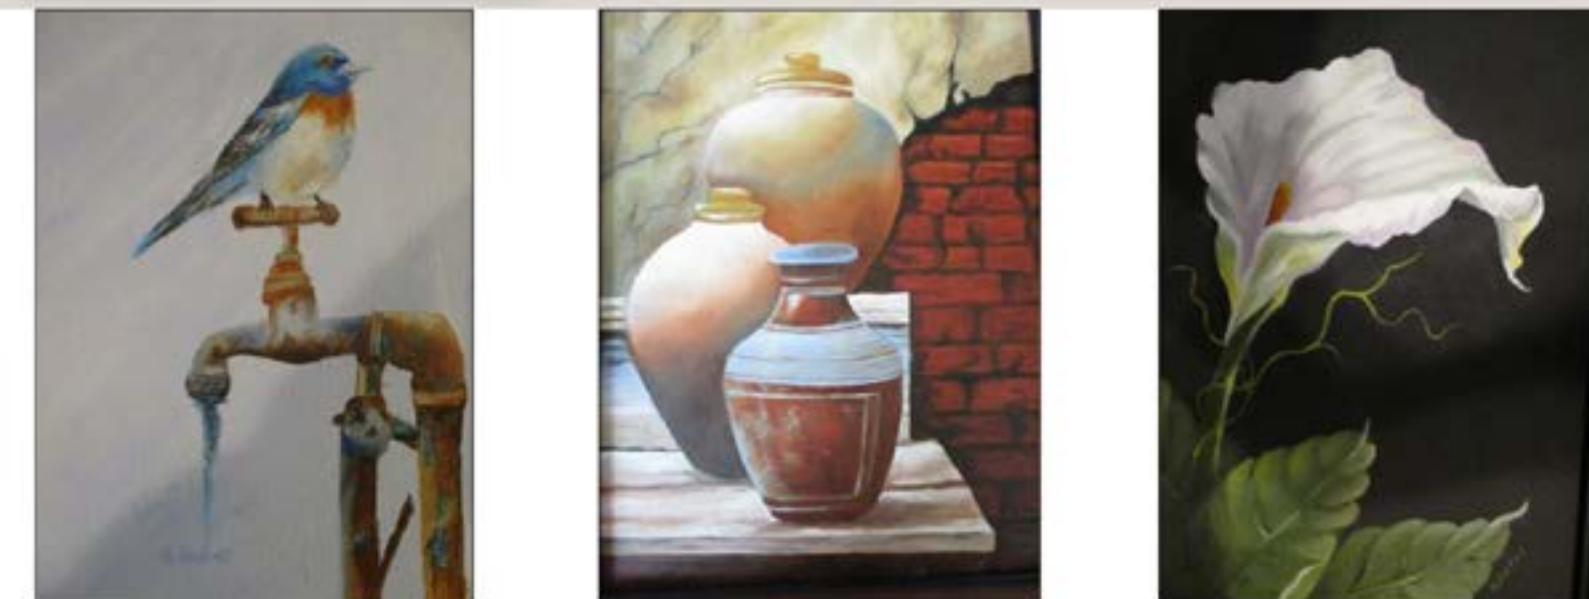

The following year I painted an ornament for the Library of Congress Christmas tree; a book representing the state of Maryland. I also painted my interpretation of Romaine Brooks "La Baronne Emile D'Erlanger" ca. 1924 hanging in The Renwick Gallery for their Holiday Tree.

I have also won many awards including Best of Show many times at the Charles County Fair and the Richard R. Clark Senior Center.

I am a member of the Charles County Arts Alliance Gallery Committee, Southern Maryland Decorative Painters and a member of the Mattawoman Creek Art Center's Artist Advisory Committee, Workshop Coordinator at MCAC, and a member of the Colonial Beach Art Guild.

Presently I am only pursuing fine art; painting mostly in oils.

Any questions, Nancy Owens may be emailed at nancypaints@verizon.net.
