Dear Arts Alliance Members,

Have you RSVP’d to the annual Membership Meeting on May 20th, yet? You’ll get a chance to meet the Charles County Arts Alliance scholarship winners for 2023. I’m always impressed by the talented young people who are selected, and their plans for the future. The Scholarship Program is a highlight of the CCAA year.

Of course, we’ll be discussing some business at the meeting, which is important, and you’ll be voting on the Board of directors.

Are you getting excited about Artsfest 2023? We are returning to the Indian Head Village Green after a long absence, on June 10th. We’ve lined up performers for the Gazebo, outside, and the pavilion, inside.

There will be food trucks and activities for the kids. It’s a great opportunity for artists and vendors to display their work. There’s still time to register. You don’t want to miss it!

KEITH LINVILLE

Accepting applications for FY24 Creativity Grant and Presenting and Touring programs

MSAC relies on a diverse array of constituents with varied backgrounds from across the state of Maryland to do the important work of evaluating applications as panelists. MSAC selects its panelists with a focus on diversity of experiences, diversity of location, and expertise in varying artistic disciplines.

Creativity Grant Panelists
Creativity Grant panelists not only have the opportunity to review and score applications from both independent artists and small arts organizations from throughout the state of Maryland, but also can be a part of making an impact across many communities! Applications include proposals for project-based work and general operating support for organizations.

What to Expect as a Panelist
- Application reviews are completed on a panelist’s own time online during the middle of each month, beginning in July 2023.
- Panelists typically review 35-45 applications per month, which requires approximately 12-14 hours to complete over a 2-week period (total varies from month to month).
- A total of 12-15 panelists are needed to serve for 11 monthly reviews during FY24 (July 2023 - May 2024).
- Ten of the total panelists will review applications each month; this schedule will rotate based on disciplines and needs represented in the applications (you will not review applications every month).
- A required virtual panelist orientation will take place on Friday, June 23 from 12 p.m. to 2 p.m.
- Panelists receive compensation of $50 for the training, along with a sliding scale for monthly reviews, depending on the number of applications reviewed (25 or less apps = $200; 26-35 apps = $300; 36-45 apps = $375; 46+ apps = $450).
What We’re Looking For

- Independent artists, arts administrators, fundraisers, arts enthusiasts, arts educators, and students who want to be involved in the grantmaking process.
- Individuals who represent artistic expertise in the disciplines that the Creativity Grant supports: Music, Visual Arts, Media Arts, Theater, Dance, Literary Arts, Arts in Education, Folk/Traditional Arts, Arts Services, and Multi-Disciplinary Arts.
- Individuals to represent as an arts administrator or fundraiser who have experience with daily operations of nonprofit organizations and general operating funds.

Presenting and Touring Panelists

Presenting and Touring Panelists have the unique opportunity to review applications for both the Maryland Touring Roster and for the Maryland Touring Grant. Evaluation of Touring Roster applications includes the review of performers that wish to join the Roster. Touring Grant reviews evaluate applications from presenters who wish to bring Touring Roster members to their venues. This is an exciting experience to ensure collaboration continues through this program!

What to Expect as a Panelist

- Application reviews are completed on a panelist’s own time online during the middle of each month, beginning July 2023.
- Panelists typically review approximately 10-20 applications per review (including both Roster and Touring Grant), which requires approximately 4-6 hours to complete over a 2-week period.
- A total of 10 panelists are needed to serve for 11 monthly reviews during FY24 (July 2023 - May 2024).
- Five of the ten panelists will review applications each month; this schedule will rotate based on disciplines and needs represented in the applications. You should expect to review 5-6 times throughout the year, and not every month.
- A required virtual panelist orientation will take place on Monday, June 26th from 12 p.m. to 2 p.m.
- Panelists receive compensation of $50 for the training, along with a sliding scale for monthly reviews, depending on the number of applications reviewed (25 or less apps = $200; 26-35 apps = $300; 36-45 apps = $375; 46+ apps = $450).

What We’re Looking For

- Independent performing artists (especially those with Touring experience), arts administrators (especially of presenting organizations/venues, both for- and non-profit), and individuals with tour management experience who want to be involved in the grantmaking process.
- Individuals with knowledge or background in the performing arts (music, dance, theater, storytelling, etc.).

How do I apply to be a panelist?

The Maryland Arts Summit, hosted at UMBC, is a statewide conference presented by and for the Maryland arts sector, which includes, but is not limited to: Arts Advocates, Arts Educators & Teaching Artists, Independent Artists, Arts Organizations, Youth, Community Stakeholders, Arts, and Entertainment Districts, County Arts Agencies of Maryland, Public Artists, Boards of Directors, and Folklife Artists.

It is an opportunity to network, share the fantastic work that is being done across the state, learn about communities different from your own, celebrate the accomplishments of what we as a sector have achieved, and, through dialogue and action, bring to light where systems have fallen short of the support required to help artists and organizations thrive. The Maryland Arts Summit is a space for productive conversations to move the Maryland arts sector forward and ensure its long-term success.
