President's Letter

I was so excited to meet the CCAA 2022 Arts Scholarship winners at the Annual Membership Meeting, last month. One couldn't help but be impressed with these young people, and their academic plans for the future. Our winners; I'ami Argueta, Kaylee Brown, Nyla Brown, Melanie Hall, Jaden Hendricks, Blythe McCammon, and Isabella Santoro each had a unique and interesting story about the specific events or different reasons that led them to decide to choose the arts. When you join or donate to CCAA, this is what it's all about; you make this happen!

In addition to meeting the scholarship winners, we were, also, treated to several lovely selections performed by a string quartet from the Charles County Youth Orchestra. It was quite lovely, and one of the scholarship winners, Blythe McCammon, performed in the quartet.

Later in the month, I had the pleasure of representing you, at Henry E. Lackey High School's Senior Awards Ceremony, to present the CCAA 2022 Arts Scholarship to Kaylee Brown, before her fellow classmen. As a 1980 graduate of Lackey High School, myself, I couldn't help but feel extra-delighted.

I hope you get a chance to join us for ArtsFest 2022 on June 11th, at the
La Plata Town Hall!

Keith Linville
