Arts Alliance Opens Solo Show by Roxana Gonzales at the Charles County Government Commissioners Building

Oil Paintings on Display Through July 12, 2017

Roxana was born on April 15, 1963, in a small town in North Perú called Chepen. She is one of four children raised by loving parents in a calm environment. Roxana took an interest in literature, writing and art at an early age. She would observe people around her which would inspire fictional stories in her notebooks, and make portraits of her friends to go along. At the age of 6, she created her first oil painting. After that exciting experience with a brush she then continued to work on various bodegones and children paintings.

When Roxana completed school at the age of 16, she enrolled at the boarding school for future nurses called “Escuela Nacional De Enfermeras Arzobispo Loayza,” today known as Universidad Cayetano Heredia. Even with a graduate degree in nursing, she did not work in a hospital; but rather worked on women’s development programs and dedicated her time to working with women who lived in the poor parts of Perú.

In 2007, change came when Roxana immigrated with her family to the U.S, and for her it was like beginning a new life. It was hard for her to learn a foreign language but she kept trying. The lack of friends made her feel lonely after the end of her 25 years of marriage, which made her start painting again. She looked inside herself and found a new door to open to a wonderful and unique way for her to communicate. She started with pencil portraits for a year, and then in the following year, she began to give her creations color.

Roxana’s art is mostly focused on women and children. Her skills involve portrait painting, acrylics and oils. Her motivation is to show the transparency and innocence of children and the bravery, courage, hard work and unique outlook women have in life. Her works have been selected to be shown in the General Consulate of Peru in Washington, DC.

Roxana can be reached at artofadreamer@aol.com. Visit <https://charlescountyarts.org/galleries/commissioners-gallery-2> to see the virtual gallery.

The Commissioners Gallery is located at 200 Baltimore Street, La Plata, MD 20646. Gallery hours: Weekdays, 8:00 am to 4:30 pm.

Arts Alliance Opens Solo Show by Dr. Theresa Alo at the University of Maryland Charles Regional Medical Center

Sculptures on Display through July 2017

Theresa Alo graduated from Alfred University College of Ceramics in 1989 with a Bachelor's in Fine Arts. Continuing her education, she graduated in 1994 from Gallaudet University with a Masters of Arts Degree, from Trinity College in 1996 with her Administrative Degree, and from The College of Notre Dame of Maryland in 2003 with an Educational Specialist Degree in Leadership.

In 2010 she completed her Doctoral Degree from the College of Notre Dame of Maryland, contributing to the field of Arts Education through her research entitled The Effect of Visual Arts Education on At-Risk Students' Critical Thinking Skills and the Maryland English II High School Assessment where she uncovered empirical evidence of the value of visual arts education.

Dr. Alo has always created her own artworks, but with her education completed, she is now concentrating on new bodies of work that are reflections of her life experiences. Her goal is to have the viewer experience similar emotions that she encountered through the piece of art. She has been employed with the Charles County Board of Education for the past twenty-seven years as a high school arts instructor. She currently holds the position of Fine Arts Department Chair at North Point High School in Waldorf, Maryland.

Dr. Alo's states:

"As an artist, I have a passion for working with clay. Maybe it is the endless possibilities that such a diverse medium offers, or maybe it is just the feel, but either way clay has an inherent mysterious quality that offers unforeseen potential to be anything. There is not a set procedure for utilizing clay in an art piece; instead the challenge in itself is what inspires me to create. I also like to use other art mediums, which, as you can see, still brings me back to the tactile sense. I love to experiment with all mediums, but most importantly, I hope that you enjoy the show."

You can see more of Dr. Alo's work at Theresa-Alo.com, or visit <https://charlescountyarts.org/galleries/charles-regional-medical-center>. She can be reached at terrialo@hotmail.com.

The Medical Center is located at 5 Garrett Avenue, La Plata, MD 20646. Gallery hours: Daily, 8:00 am to 8:00 pm.

Americans for the Arts Announces Budget Agreement

No Funding Cuts for FY 2017

Congress has reached a bipartisan agreement on a bill to fund the nation's federal agencies and programs for the remaining balance of the current Fiscal Year (FY) 2017 budget, which ends on September 30, 2017. None of the nation's arts and cultural agencies nor programs incurred a budget cut. In fact, many of them received funding increases for this year (see chart below).

Key Federally Funded Arts & Culture Agencies/Programs	FY 2016 Enacted Appropriations (in millions)	FY 2017 Omnibus Proposal (in millions)
National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)	$148	$150
National Endowment for Humanities (NEH)	$148	$150
Assistance for Arts Education grant program through U.S. Department of Education	$27	$27
New ESSA Well-Rounded Education grants	--	$400
21st Century Community Learning Centers (after-school program)	$1,140	$1,190
Corporation for Public Broadcasting	$445	$445
Office of Museum Services	$31	$32
Save America's Treasures	$0	$5
Smithsonian Institution	$840	$863
U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum	$54	$57
Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts	$36	$36
U.S. Commission of Fine Arts	$2.65	$2.8
Nat'l Capital Arts & Cultural Affairs Program	$2	$2
National Gallery of Art	$148	$155.5

Special thanks goes to House Interior Appropriations Subcommittee Chairman Ken Calvert (R-CA) for initiating a funding increase for many of these cultural programs in the House Interior bill last summer along with ranking member Rep. Betty McCollum (D-MN) and to Senate Interior Appropriations Subcommittee Chairman Lisa Murkowski (R-AK) for matching the funding increases in the final Senate version of the bill. Many thanks to Congressional Arts Caucus co-chairs Rep. Louise Slaughter (D-NY) and Rep. Leonard Lance (R-NJ) and Senate Cultural Caucus co-chairs Sen. Tom Udall (D-NM) and Sen. Susan Collins (R-ME) for keeping pressure on Congressional leaders to increase funding for these critically important cultural agencies.

Next Steps:

FY2017: Both chambers of Congress will next vote on this bipartisan Omnibus Appropriations bill before it proceeds to the President's desk for him to sign/veto by this Friday, May 5. Despite the President's recently proposing funding cuts to many of these cultural programs (i.e. $15 million cut to NEA), it appears that he will sign the bill.

FY2018: Please note that the FY2018 appropriations bill for funding the federal government from October 1, 2017 through September 30, 2018, is still very much in play and going through the legislative process. This is the bill that the President recommended eliminating the NEA, NEH, IMLS, CPB, etc. The focus remains on getting all of these agencies fully funded as well in the coming months.
