Register Now for Maryland Arts Day!

Virtual
MARYLAND
ARTS
DAY
FEBRUARY 11, 2021

On Thursday, February 11, 2021, we will make our voices heard virtually at Maryland Arts Day! Join the CCAA and hundreds of advocates who fight tirelessly for the arts. This event is one of the most important advocacy days for the Maryland arts sector.

During the event, you will hear remarks from lawmakers passionate about the arts, the presentation of the annual Sue Hess Arts Advocate of the Year Award, and a keynote speech featuring guest speaker, art-activist and former professional football player, Aaron Maybin. Most importantly, attendees have the opportunity to champion the arts directly with state representatives from southern Maryland in a specially planned Zoom room.

Schedule
9:00a  Opening Remarks and Greetings from Elected Officials
9:30a  Sue Hess Legacy Arts Advocate of the Year Award Presentation
9:45a  Keynote Address – Aaron Maybin
10:15a  Budget Realities and Legislative Talking Points
Virtual Delegation Rooms (links provided at the morning event)
10:30a  County Delegation Coordination
11:00a  Lawmakers Arrive in Delegation Rooms

Don’t miss this important opportunity to support the arts! 🌟

Keynote Speaker: Aaron Maybin
Charles County Arts Alliance
Call for Board of Directors
2021 - 2023

DO YOU WANT TO PROMOTE THE ARTS?

The Charles County Arts Alliance (CCAA) wants you! If you are a leader and want to help promote the arts in our county, nominate yourself to serve on the CCAA Board of Directors! Founded in 1987, the CCAA promotes all the arts: performing, visual, and literary.

WHAT IS THE CCAA LOOKING FOR?
The CCAA is now accepting self-nominations for the CCAA Board of Directors for the next two-year term, from July 1, 2021, through June 30, 2023. All CCAA Board positions are volunteer.

DO YOU QUALIFY?
Individuals interested in serving on the CCAA Board of Directors must be current members of the CCAA at the time of self-nomination.

HOW TO SUBMIT A SELF-NOMINATION
Please submit a typed brief written statement indicating:
- Why you are interested in serving on the CCAA Board
- What specific contributions you wish to make
- Your background and/or qualifications

Send this written statement (not to exceed one page) to: info@charlescountyarts.org with the subject-line to read: "Nomination for CCAA Board of Directors."

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS FOR CCAA BOARD MEMBERS?
CCAA Board members are expected to:
- Commit to the mission, goals, and objectives of the Charles County Arts Alliance.
- Commit to being a leader. CCAA Board positions are leadership positions.
- Commit the personal time required to:
  - Serve on a "hands-on" volunteer Board
  - Serve on at least one CCAA committee
  - Attend monthly Board Meetings
  - Attend semi-annual Board Retreats
  - Participate in CCAA-sponsored events throughout the year

WHEN IS THE SUBMISSION DEADLINE FOR SELF-NOMINATIONS?
All self-nominations must be received by the CCAA by no later than March 15, 2021.

Thank You For Your Consideration!
CCAA 2nd Fridays

When and Where We Enter - In Words and In Truth

CCAA 2nd Fridays continues in February highlighting the Literary Arts and in honor of Black History Month, a panel discussion on the arts in Charles County from the perspective of black artists.

Students from St. Charles High School will be featured reciting original poetry and the panel discussion includes Charles County natives and residents including: Yvonne Medley - Life Journeys Writers Guild, Angelica Jackson - Phoenix International School of the Arts, Cameron Posey, local writer and educator, and more!

Visit our our YouTube page, February 12, 2021 at 7:00 pm EST, and join us live.

Scholarship Applications for 2021 Are Now Available Online!

Deadline to Apply is March 5, 2021

The Charles County Arts Alliance offers a $1,500 scholarship to an outstanding graduating senior from each Charles County public high school and St. Mary’s Ryken High School (Charles County resident only) who plans to continue studying the arts at a four-year college or university.

Applications are available now, the deadline to apply is March 5, 2021. Click here to download an application and learn more about the scholarship. For additional information, contact the CCAA office at 301-392-5900, or info@charlescountyarts.org.
Theatre Directors Interactive Roundtable

On January 10, 2021, the Arts Alliance premiered its new theatre education program, hosting 20 members from the southern Maryland theatre community. Moderated by Charles County native A. Lorraine Robinson, the group engaged in a lively multi-faceted discussion covering a range of topics including casting challenges and professional development. The roundtable was so successful, the group was eager to meet again and target on specific topics. As a result, the CCAA scheduled another roundtable with limited space. The session reached capacity in 24 hours and now has a waitlist.

The next roundtable is scheduled for Sunday, February 21, 2021 at 6:00 pm. If you would like to be placed on the waitlist, click HERE and complete the registration form. Thank you!

The CCAA is encouraged the community’s immediate response to this program and is working hard to bring you additional programs like this to continue to enhance the creative spirit in Charles County.

What the participants thought:
"I participated in the recent theatre directors workshop and it was nothing short of outstanding! The subsequent word of mouth on Facebook was also terrific. Thank You!"

"The Hill We Climb"
by National Youth Poet Laureate
Amanda Gorman

During the Presidential Inauguration, January 20, 202, Amanda Gorman, the nation's first youth poet laureate, stepped into the spotlight and introduced the world to her commanding literary prowess with a call for Americans to "leave behind a country better than the one we were left."

Click the image above to hear her recite her Inaugural poem, "The Hill We Climb."

About the Author . . . Amanda Gorman

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Amanda Gorman began writing at only a few years of age. Now her words have won her invitations to the Obama White House and to perform for Lin-Manuel Miranda, Al Gore, Secretary Hillary Clinton, Malala Yousafzai, and others. Amanda has performed multiple commissioned poems for CBS This Morning and she has spoken at events and venues across the country, including the Library of Congress and Lincoln Center. She has received a Genius Grant from OZY Media, as well as recognition from Scholastic Inc., YoungArts, the Glamour magazine College Women of the Year Awards, and the Webby Awards. She has written for the New York Times newsletter The Edit and penned the manifesto for Nike's 2020 Black History Month campaign. She is the recipient of the Poets & Writers Barnes & Noble Writers for Writers Award, and is the youngest board member of 826 National, the largest youth writing network in the United States. In 2017 UrbanWord and the Library of Congress named her the first ever National Youth Poet Laureate in the United States.
The Maryland State Arts Council and its collaborating partners regularly offer a variety of resources, programs, and funding opportunities. Listed below are a few highlights.
