SURVEILLANCE OF USERS!

Digital Disconnect explores how profit-hungry corporations like Comcast, Verizon, Facebook, and Google have compromised the Internet's original purpose as a not-for-profit service to empower all users through ad-free, democratizing, and equal access to it.

A Q&A will follow the film.

Moderator, Rebecca Hains, Professor of marketing/media & communication at Salem State University. Her current research focuses on social media creators' experiences with platform governance, such as AI moderation and algorithmic injustices.
