Call to Worship

*Opening Hymn No. 92 [STLT]

“Mysterious Presence, Source of All”

Mysterious Presence, source of all the world without
The soul within
Thou fount of life O hear our call
And pour thy living waters in.

Thou breathest in the rushing wind,
thy spirit stirs in leaf and flower;
Nor wilt thou from the willing mind
Withhold thy light and love and power.

That touch divine again impart
Still give the prophet’s burning word;
And vocal in each waiting heart
Let living psalms of praise be heard.

Covenant Affirmation

Love is the doctrine of this church,
The quest for truth its sacrament,
And service its prayer.
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
To serve human need,
To the end that all souls shall grow into harmony with the Divine —
Thus do we covenant with each other and with God.

Musical Response No. 396 [STLT]

“I Know This Rose Will Open”

I know this rose will open
I know this fear will burn away
I know my soul will unfurl its wings
I know this rose will open.

Closing Hymn “Soon the Day Will Arrive” No. 146 [STLT]

Solo, congregation v1 and v2

Congregation:

Verse 1:

Soon the day will arrive when we will be together,
And no longer will we live in fear.
And the children will smile without wondering whether
On that day thunderclouds will appear.

Refrain:

Wait and see, wait and see what a world there can be
If we share, if we care, you and me. (2x)

Verse 2:

Some have dreamed, some have died to make a bright tomorrow,
And our vision remains in our hearts.
Now the torch must be passed with new hope, not in sorrow,
And a promise to make a new start.

Refrain:

Wait and see, wait and see what a world there can be
If we share, if we care, you and me. (2x)

Welcome, to the Unitarian Universalist Church of Greater Lynn!

Thank you for demonstrating your commitment to community well-being by wearing a mask and maintaining distance between yourself and others not in your "bubble." Waving hello and sharing gestures of blessing are all wonderful ways to express affection at a time when hugs and handshakes are not safe practices.

We encourage everyone who can be vaccinated to do so; however, our children and some members are medically unable to be immunized, and we remain vigilant for them and for the extended community while we continue to experience transmission of COVID in MA.

Also to minimize close contact, we will be accepting the Offering on the usher's table, where you can leave checks or cash to support the ministries of the church.

May love carry us through. May we carry love through.

OUR CHURCH HISTORY

Our congregation has a long history, and the present congregation is the outcome of the merger of three churches. Our earliest roots are in the First Church of Christ of Lynn, organized in 1632.

About two hundred years later, in 1822, a group of liberals withdrew to form the Second Congregational Society. Its first building was dedicated on South Common Street in 1832 and its second at the corner of Atlantic and Baltimore Streets in 1910. In 1919 that congregation changed its name to the Unitarian Church of Lynn.

The First Universalist Society, located in Lynn, was organized in 1833. Its first building was dedicated on Union Street in 1835 and its second on Nahant Street in 1873. By the late 1800s, the congregation was the largest Universalist Church in America. In 1908, the congregation changed its name to First Universalist Parish of Lynn.

The Swampscott Universalist Society was organized in 1889, and its building on Burrill Street was dedicated in 1891. The Swampscott Universalist Society later changed its name to the Swampscott Universalist Church.

Between 1964 and 1966 these three churches consolidated. On March 22, 1981, our present meetinghouse, on seven and a half acres of wooded land in Swampscott, was dedicated; and the congregation was renamed the Unitarian Universalist Church of Greater Lynn.

WE ARE A SPIRITUAL COMMUNITY

that gathers to explore deeper truths together, to support one another through the complexities and struggles of daily life, and to serve the greater good by becoming more compassionate in our thoughts, words and actions.
Join with us to cultivate reverence, peacefulness, and an ethic of loving engagement with the world.
