

Stanwich School New Faculty and Staff for 2016-2017

Ed Miranti – Educational Technologist. A 2006 graduate of the University of Rochester (B.A., Mathematics, with distinction) with a M.S. in Financial Engineering from the University of Hawaii (2010), and a M.Ed. in Mathematics from Columbia Teachers College (2013), Ed has been teaching Middle/Upper School Math and Science for the past seven years. Ed can teach Math through the highest levels, as well as Chemistry and Physics through AP. He has served as a Middle School Math Teacher and Director of Technology at Bicultural Day School in Stamford, CT, and later at Dwight as Associate Director of the Dwight Open World Program.

Alexa Bennett – Grade 6 English and Seminar teacher, Grade 6 advisor. With a teaching philosophy congruent to Stanwich's, Alexa believes in a student-centered classroom where she provides hands-on experiences in a collaborative learning environment. A Quinnipiac University graduate in Sociology, Alexa has an advanced degree of Master of Curriculum and Instruction from Florida Gulf Coast University. In her most recent post, Alexa was the fifth grade lead teacher at Park City Prep in Bridgeport.

Scott Lohmeyer – Grades 6 and 7 Math teacher, JH Math Counts team, Cross Country coach. Scott is a graduate of the University of Rhode Island and has a Master of Science in Education from the University of Bridgeport. Scott strives to create an inclusive classroom environment where everyone feels safe in asking questions, and fosters a sense of community which generates respect and understanding in his classroom. Scott's diverse teaching experience includes the Darlington School in Georgia and Cayman International School.

Katy Everett – Grades 7 and 10 English teacher, Grades 7 and 8 Seminar teacher, Grade 7 advisor. Katy graduated from Connecticut College (Cum Laude) and has an advanced degree from Rutgers University. She comes to us from Wooster School where she had been teaching at the Middle School level since 2000. At Wooster, she developed the English curricula for grades 6 and 7. She believes in student-centered classrooms where students' discussion and participation are central and essential. She has also taught Creative Writing seminars at the high school level.

Kelly Lametta – School Nurse. A practicing registered nurse, Kelly comes to Stanwich from Park Street Pediatrics in Norwalk and is excited to have the opportunity to work with our students and developing health and wellness related programming.
