

Introducing...

1) What is your name? Kim Romigh

2) Where were you born? Pittsburgh, PA

3) Tell us about your family. I'm the oldest of two girls, with my sister being just a year and a half younger, and we have always been really close. My mom worked as a nurse, fulfilling a calling she felt ever since she read about Florence Nightingale as a child, and my dad as a middle school band director, following his love for music. Since my Dad was a teacher, we enjoyed summers together and our household was always full of love, art, music, movies, and dogs.

4) Current schooling. I graduated in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology.

5) Faith story? I've always been raised in the church, from Russian-Orthodox on my Father's parents' side to Presbyterian and Methodist on my Mother's side. Being involved in numerous denominations has played a significant role in shaping and deepening my faith. Each denomination has offered a unique perspective on scripture, worship, and community life. Through these experiences, I've learned to appreciate the diversity within the body of Christ, as well as the common ground that unites us.

6) What do you like to do for fun? I like to read, cross-stitch, watch movies, play video games, spend time with friends and family, and to create things. I like to read a wide variety of books to not only keep my mind engaged but also to help me grow as a person. I enjoy playing video games that explore engaging storylines and cooperative games to have fun with my friends and family.

7) Do you consider yourself an introvert or an extrovert? I am a mix of both. I enjoy engaging with others, but also enjoy quiet time to recharge.

8) Plans for the future – What do you believe God is calling you to be? I believe God is calling me to use the gifts He has blessed me with—empathy, compassion, administrative skills, and creativity—to make a positive impact in the community.

9) Favorite Bible verse and why? Philippians 4:13 says, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me," which has gotten me through the tough times in my life.
