

Self	•For physical daily needs (Matthew 6 :11) •For personal growth in Christ-likeness and devotion to God. (Colossians 1:9-12)
Family	•For spouse, children, parents, siblings, etc. •For their nurture and growth in the teaching of the Lord. (Ephesians 6:4)
Community	•For peace to prevail •Jeremiah 29:7
Church	•For love and unity to prevail (John 13:35; 17:20-21) •For the spiritual growth of each member (Philemon 1:9-11) •For the gospel to have free course (2 Thessalonians 3:1)
Nation	•For national repentance and consciousness of who God is (Psalm 33:12; Proverbs 14:34)
Nonbelievers	•For their salvation (Romans 10:1) •For the effort of those involved in teaching them. (Ephesians 6:18-20)
The Sick	•For their restoration to health (James 5:14-15) •For spiritual strength and peace of mind (James 5:16)
The poor and oppressed	•Such as the homeless, fatherless, unborn children (Proverbs 29:7) •Those in other nations oppressed by their own rulers or outside influences.

For What to Pray as Revealed in Scripture

Monday-Family	Tuesday-Church	Wednesday-Community	Thursday-Nation	Friday-World	Saturday-Afflicted
•Pray for both immediate and extended family members •For both their physical and spiritual well-being	•For congregation members •For Christians and congregations throughout the world	•For community leaders •For your neighbors	•For elected officials •For efforts to bring peace and righteousness	•For world peace •For nations that are "closed" to the gospel	•For the poor, homeless, jobless •For those in prison •For those who are sick •For widows, single mothers, fatherless children

Using a Prayer Strategy