For Your Information

CHILDREN'S GATHERING (for infants through 5th graders)

Registration and drop-off will begin at 8:00 a.m. on Friday, March 29 in the children's ministry wing located on the second floor (see map). Parents MUST retrieve their children during lunch. Grade school children are invited to attend the afternoon worship and ministry celebration. All children should be picked up at 5:30 p.m., promptly following the afternoon service. For more specific details, see the Schedule of Events on page 11.

LIVING WATER CAFÉ

Complimentary refreshments are located behind the exhibit hall in the fellowship hall on the first floor.

Coffee is provided by Cam's Coffee Co. and brought to you by Gardner-Webb School of Divinity. Cam's Coffee Co. helps those with developmental and intellectual disabilities enjoy gainful employment, life skills training, as well as a sense of self and independence. They are the first organization to create employment opportunities specifically for individuals with intellectual and physical disabilities in the Piedmont area.

Refreshments are provided in part by Delicious by Shereen, a catering service run by Syrian women and sponsored by Thrivent Financial. Created by Shereen Abdelfattah as a way for refugees to generate income, 100% of the proceeds of these authentic treats go back to the Syrian women who created them.

LUNCH

Our lunch break will take place from 12:00 p.m. –1:30 p.m. If you pre-ordered a boxed lunch, you may pick it up in the gymnasium. We do not have boxed lunches for sale on-site. If you didn't order lunch, please check out a nearby restaurant!

OFFERING

Our Giving & Sharing Table will be open all day! This year's offering will go toward the CBFNC 25th Anniversary Gift. Stop by to give to our offering using your credit card, and share your blessings with us. As we celebrate 25 years of CBFNC, we ask that you share your hopes for our fellowship's future. At the giving table, you'll have the opportunity to write down your birthday blessings and prayers for CBFNC. These will help propel us in our next 25 years! You may also text cbfnc25 to 50155 to donate.

LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
FBC Greensboro | Chapel

Canoeing the Mountains with Tod Bolsinger

TOD BOLSINGER, author of Canoeing the Mountains: Church Leadership in Uncharted Territory, will lead the 2019 Leadership Institute. Tod serves as vice president and chief of leadership formation at Fuller Seminary. Tod brings decades of expertise in guiding churches through uncharted territory and will help us to re-imagine what effective leadership looks like in dynamic cultural contexts.

25TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

DIVINITY STUDENT EXPERIENCE

Friday, March 29

DIVINITY STUDENT BREAKFAST

8:00 a.m. | Gymnasium Café

TOPIC: Finding a Ministry Job!

How can I turn my vocational calling into a real job? How do I get my name in front of local church search teams? What questions should I be prepared to answer and ask search committees? What should a fair compensation package look like? What benefits should I ask for? Seth Hix, director of CBFNC's Ministerial Transition Team, will share some "do's" and "don'ts" of the ministry job search process.

DIVINITY STUDENT LUNCH

12:00 p.m. | Gymnasium Café

TOPIC: Ministry Lessons I Didn't (or Couldn't) Learn in Divinity School

Divinity school is a wonderful place to learn and grow. However, the lessons learned in the classroom cannot completely prepare you for the realities of daily ministry. From committee meetings to broken air conditioners, there are a multitude of issues related to daily ministry that can only be learned on the job. As we eat lunch, we'll dialogue with seasoned pastors, young clergy, and leaders of religious non-profits. There will be time for questions, answers, and networking.

DIVINITY STUDENT AFTER PARTY

9:00 p.m.

Following the BWIMNC Convocation, meet in the registration area before leaving for a local venue!

BJC and CBF of North Carolina: Our Shared History, Present and Future

CHAPEL

AMANDA TYLER | Executive Director, Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty, Washington D.C.

The Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty, founded in 1936, has served as CBF of NC's voice in Washington, D.C. on religious liberty matters for nearly two decades. Learn about the work of the BJC and its relevance today, reporting on the latest religious liberty news, including Supreme Court cases, legislation, and increased efforts to pass "Christian Nationalism" legislation in the states. Hear about the next phase of activity for the BJC -- equipping supporters to be advocates for religious freedom in their communities.

Ministry in the Age of Polarization

ROOM 101

LEE CANIPE | Moderator, Senior Pastor, Providence Baptist Church, Charlotte

J.DANIEL DAY | Pastor Emeritus, First, Raleigh and Retired Professor, Campbell University Divinity School

JEFF MATHIS | Pastor, First, Sylva

EMILY HULL MCGEE | Pastor, First, Winston-Salem

TIMOTHY PEOPLES | Pastor, Emerywood, High Point

The book of Ephesians tells us that Jesus Christ is our peace, but we live in a culture that is divided in so many ways along so many lines. How can our churches offer a compelling witness to the reconciling love of Jesus while negotiating the very real differences that exist among members of our own congregations? A panel of experienced pastors will offer insights, ideas, and hopeful strategies for proclaiming--and, more importantly, living--the peace of Christ in a polarized time.

Singing What We Preach: Ideas for Broadening the Sung Theology of the Church

SANCTUARY

KYLE MATTHEWS | Minister of Worship Arts, First, Greenville, SC

Hymnody is a living canon which changes to reflect worship in each generation and the nuances that make different worshipping communities unique. Commercial publishing seeks to profit from "vertically integrating" church music by limiting our choices. But what aspects of the Christian experience are lost in the bargain? And what can be done about it?

Finding New Stories Beneath Old Secular Steeples

ROOM 319

CLYDE EDGERTON | Author, Wilmington

Clyde Edgerton will describe incidents and stories from real life that have launched his novels, and in turn ask participants to unearth and share incidents and stories that provide footings for moral principles found in scripture.

9:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.

Discerning Biblical Voices and Perspectives on Human Sexuality

ROOM 102

MARY FOSKETT | Wake Forest Kahle Professor of Religious Studies, Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem

This session examines biblical voices and perspectives regarding human sexuality in the context of ancient understanding, contemporary questions, and the ways in which we read biblical texts. Focus will be on discerning key matters that should be considered as we interpret the Bible as people of faith. The workshop aims to equip participants to continue their own discernment and informed engagement with the Bible.

Beyond Prayers: Practical Methods for Supporting Mental Health in your Congregation

ROOM 218

JENNY LEE | Director of Youth and Christian Education, First Presbyterian, Sanford

DANIEL MAURER | Health Psychologist, Army Medical Command Health Psychology, Fayetteville

This workshop will provide theological foundations and practical tips for supporting mental health in your congregation. Focusing on anxiety and depression, participants will leave this workshop with tools to support the congregation as a whole as well as individuals who are seeking help for specific pastoral care needs.

BENEDICTION

Charlotte Cook Smith

To the church of God . . . called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Celebrate God's goodness.

Celebrate God's faithfulness.

Celebrate the God who calls us together as the Body of Christ.

I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him,
in speech and knowledge of every kind so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift.

Celebrate God all day, every day.

I mean, revel in him!

Make it as clear as you can to all you meet that you're on their side, working with them and not against them.

—Philippians 4:4, The Message

Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose.

This journey calls us to a different way of life.

This journey calls us together.

This journey calls us to Christ.

For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.

Your life is a journey you must travel with a deep consciousness of God.

It cost God plenty to get you out of that dead-end, empty-headed life you grew up in.

It's because of this sacrificed Messiah, whom God then raised from the dead and glorified, that you trust God, that you know you have a future in God.

—1 Peter 1:18-21, The Message

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

Serve generously.

Serve even when it seems foolish.

Serve together for the sake of the world.

Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of our proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received.

Whoever speaks must do so as one speaking the very words of God; whoever serves must do so with the strength that God supplies, so that God may be glorified in all things through Jesus Christ.

To him belong the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.

—1 Peter 4:10-11, New Revised Standard Version

We Dissenters

CHAPEL

CURTIS FREEMAN | *Director of the Baptist House of Studies,
Duke Divinity School, Durham*

We Baptists are dissenters. The historic tradition of religious dissent in which Baptists stand contributed significantly to the establishment of democracy in America. But if Baptists have any prospect of contributing to the extension of the lively experiment that is America, it will demand the retrieval of the convictions and practices of dissent.

CBFNC Financial Matters

ROOM 202

LARRY HOVIS | Executive Coordinator; Staff; and Officers, CBFNC, Winston-Salem

Learn about and discuss CBFNC financial matters including the proposed 2019-2020 Ministry and Mission Funding Plan (budget), which will incorporate the Mission Resource Plan.

Meet the New CBF Global Executive Coordinator

ROOM 204

PAUL BAXLEY | CBF (Global) Executive Coordinator

North Carolina native, Paul Baxley, recently began his tenure as the fourth Executive Coordinator of Cooperative Baptist Fellowship (Global). Meet Paul (or renew your friendship), hear his call to this new role, and dialogue about the future of CBF.

TOPICS (Transformation of People in Christian Study)

ROOM 101

BARRETT FREEMAN | Pastor, Mount Carmel, Chapel Hill

VIRGINIA ROSS TAYLOR | Member, Mount Carmel, Chapel Hill

TOPICS brought life back to discipleship at Mount Carmel, Chapel Hill. This new model for Sunday School has been extremely successful in motivating more volunteers to teach, filling up classrooms all over the church, and empowering people to choose from a list of topics as wide and deep as your community.

Imagining a Prophetic Spirituality

ROOM 203

TOMMY BRATTON | Minister of Christian Formation, First, Asheville

A significant challenge for many congregations is learning how to integrate spiritual practices and the prophetic call to seek justice as essential components of faith formation. As churches adapt to the rapidly changing culture, leaders must engage in scriptural and prophetic imagination, listen to the stories of voices who have been silenced or marginalized, and discover what it means to practice a lived faith in their ordinary, everyday lives. Join this conversation as we all seek to more fully live into our calling “to do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with God” (Micah 6:8).

Church Safety and Security: Planning that Springs from Faith

ROOM 319

PAUL RAYBON | Partner, Barnabas Partnership, Asheville and Associate Pastor, Hominy, Candler

Join a theological and practical discussion of how we can keep our members and guests safe from harm, and welcome the stranger. Be introduced to a way of thinking about church safety and security that springs from Biblical principles and a process by which you and your congregation can formulate plans for dealing with worst case scenarios that we all hope will never happen.

Social Media, Teens, and Kids: Managing the Good, the Bad, and the Ugly

ROOM 218

JASON RITCHIE | Director of Information Services, Anderson University, Deacon, Ardmore, Winston-Salem

Social Media use by teens and even children is nearly ubiquitous. In this session, we will discuss some of the positives, negatives, and trends in this virtual world. More importantly, we'll talk tips and tools on how to manage its use and keep up with your kids in terms of their exposure and the risks.

Remain in Love with the Letters of John

ROOM 112

ALICIA MYERS | Associate Professor of New Testament Greek, Campbell University Divinity School, Buies Creek

We will explore the background of the letters of John, providing insight for study of these often overlooked books in devotions, among congregations, and in preaching. These letters were written to communities dealing with division. The Elder's encouragement is for the believers to “remain in love” and “remain in fellowship” by imitating Jesus’ type of love (1 John 3:16).

Eco-Theology in the New Testament

ROOM 102

JIM MCCONNELL | Associate Professor of New Testament Interpretation, Gardner-Webb University School of Divinity, Boiling Springs

Explore a call on Christ-followers to engage in care for God's creation. This call will be derived from a reading of multiple New Testament documents.

Practicing Midrash: Reading the Bible's Arguments as an Invitation to Conversation

ROOM 101D

TIM MOORE | Writer-in-Residence and former Pastor, Sardis, Charlotte

The Bible begins with an argument: two creation stories with different methods and meanings for creating the world. What happens on the first two pages happens throughout. Nearly every major Bible story is told by multiple versions with similarities and differences. Rather than see these contradictions as problems with scripture, this workshop claims them as evidence of God's wisdom for making the Bible a living word. We will learn a method for reading the Bible with a fresh perspective.

1:30 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

First Aid for Ambiguous Losses & Complicated Mourning

GYMNASIUM CLASSROOM

ROBERT COOKE | Pastoral Counselor, Triangle Pastoral Counseling, Raleigh

Using actual case studies, participants will discuss ambiguous losses and how to recognize them. You will learn practical strategies for managing complicated mourning as well as reflect on loss and mourning from a faith-informed perspective.

The Improvising Community

ROOM 208

GREG JARRELL | Director, The QC Family Tree, Inc., Charlotte

Neighborhoods, churches, and nonprofits often focus on what is missing, but everything needed for transformation is already present. Participants will explore identifying the gifts and assets present in every place using games from theatrical improvisation, and the language of jazz and blues music. Building from those gifts, transformation becomes possible in every place.

Hurricane Florence Disaster Response

ROOM 218C

DAYNETTE SNEAD, TODD PADGETT & RICK BURNETTE | Disaster Response Coordinators
CBFNC and CBF Global have partnered together to respond to the devastation in southeastern North Carolina caused by Hurricane Florence. Hear about the work being done and opportunities for you (and your church) to engage.

Embracing Our Neighbors: Serving Refugees and Immigrants In North America

ROOM 322

MARC AND KIM WYATT | CBF Field Personnel, CBF Global Missions, Decatur, Georgia
Meet CBF field personnel from across North America who minister to refugees, immigrants and trafficked people. Hear stories of people fleeing war and persecution and how your CBF field personnel bear witness to Jesus Christ as they help their neighbors find safety.

How to Get 'em Talking

ROOM 101B

RICK JORDAN | Church Resources Coordinator, CBFNC, Winston-Salem

A discussion in a Bible study is an engaging way to share and to learn from one another's experiences. How do you get a discussion started? What common mistakes do discussion leaders make? How is discussion a spiritual exercise and not a pooling of ignorance?

Celebrating Children in Church

ROOM 218A

JENNIFER CAMPBELL | Minister of Children & Families, First, High Point

How is your church celebrating children? The way we welcome children in church directly affects the way they respond to the Church, to God, and to one another. Explore best practices of how we welcome children at church.

The Amazing (and Sometimes Shocking) Story of Baptists in North Carolina

ROOM 102

LYDIA HOYLE | Associate Professor of Church History and Baptist Heritage, Campbell University Divinity School, Buies Creek

Early in the eighteenth century, a small group of colonists in North Carolina formed a tiny Baptist congregation. Before long, the Baptist movement began to grow, spread, diversify, unite, divide, and sometimes conquer. In this session, we will explore ten exciting episodes in the story of Baptists in North Carolina.

How Can the Helping Pastors Thrive Program Support CBFNC Pastors?

ROOM 112

ANDY JUNG | Associate Executive Coordinator, CBFNC, Winston-Salem

CBFNC seeks to expand its strong commitment to supporting and developing pastoral leaders by creating and implementing Helping Pastors Thrive, a program designed to impact pastors at three key stages of ministry and funded by Lilly Endowment, Inc. Helping Pastors Thrive will provide relationally based opportunities for spiritual formation and professional development. Come discover how this initiative might help you or your pastor.

Celebrating 25 Years of CBFNC

ROOM 202

LARRY HOVIS | Executive Coordinator, CBFNC, Winston-Salem

Join Larry Hovis and a panel of CBFNC leaders for a reflection and celebration of significant memories and moments from our first 25 years as a fellowship. Share hopes and dreams for our next 25 years!

Meet the New CBF Global Executive Coordinator

ROOM 204

PAUL BAXLEY | CBF (Global) Executive Coordinator

North Carolina native, Paul Baxley, recently began his tenure as the fourth executive coordinator of Cooperative Baptist Fellowship (Global). Meet Paul (or renew your friendship), hear his call to this new role, and dialogue about the future of CBF.

Reimagining Church Membership and Engagement

ROOM 208

CHRISTOPHER GAMBILL | Director, Center for Congregational Health, Winston-Salem

What does membership mean in today's church and what does it measure? How is membership different from authentic engagement in congregational life? Explore new ways of thinking about what it means to be part of a faith community in the 21st century and how we can better measure success.

Be Still: Learning to Find Stillness in a World that Never Stops

ROOM 101C

LIBBY JOHNSON | Owner, Libby L Johnson Coaching and Speaking

In today's world, when our feet hit the floor we start our day with a myriad of tasks. Quiet time is not always easy, but God rewards our efforts. This session is based on John 15:5, "I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit because apart from me you can do nothing." You will gain new ideas for a quiet time makeover, and learn how to overcome busyness, unplug and find rest in God.

#churchtoo: Resourcing Your Congregation on the Issue of Clergy Sexual Abuse

CHAPEL

PAM DURSO | Executive Director, Baptist Women in Ministry, Atlanta, GA

In 2016, Baptist Women in Ministry and CBF partnered in the formation of a Clergy Sexual Misconduct Task Force with a hope and commitment to fostering healthy churches. In October 2018, the Task Force released two new resources: a collection of significant policy and procedure documents and a video titled "Safe Churches and Ministers." These resources will be introduced during this workshop and are available for use by church groups, deacons, and church staff and leadership.

Creating Personal & Community Relationships Across Racial Boundaries

ROOM 218C

DAYNETTE SNEAD & LINDA JONES | CBFNC Racial Reconciliation Ministry Team

How is the CBFNC community embracing our neighbors around the topic of racial justice? How can your church engage in this important ministry? Explore this timely topic through the lenses of community partnerships, advocacy, hunger and education.

Scripture Shapes the People of God: A Study of Exodus 16

ROOM 218

BARRY JONES | Professor of Old Testament and Hebrew, Campbell University Divinity School, Buies Creek

Exodus 16 describes how God formed Israel into a covenant people as they journeyed together through the wilderness. Its key themes include scarcity and abundance, fear and faith, grace and service, work and worship. Exodus 16 provides a case study in how theological interpretation of Scripture shapes the church's imagination for formation and mission.

2:45 p.m. – 3:45 p.m.

Empty Nesting and Parenting

ROOM 101D

WANDA KIDD | Collegiate Engagement Coordinator

When we send our kids off to college, there are many changes that occur. There are a myriad of readjustments. While there are new freedoms for all involved, those changes for both parents and children produce a great deal of uncertainty. We will be sharing a few tips on how to navigate this transition.

It's a New Day for Ministerial Searches

ROOM 101

CBF of North Carolina

2019-2020 Proposed Mission & Ministry Funding Plan FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. How does the 2019–2020 Proposed Mission and Ministry Funding Plan differ from previous year's budgets?

For the past fifteen years, CBFNC has actually had two “budgets.” The primary budget, which is approved each year in the annual business session, funded CBFNC staff, councils, ministries directly overseen by these groups, and some partners. The second “budget” was the Mission Resource Plan (MRP) developed in 2004 as an optional giving channel that funded some partners. The proposed funding plan merges these two budgets.

2. Why is CBFNC making this change?

There are many reasons, including the following:

- a. The current system is confusing. Partners are funded in different, sometimes multiple, ways. Some partners may receive funding through their MRP allocation, the CBFNC operating budget, and the CBF Global operating budget. Many churches don’t understand how their money is currently divided between CBFNC, CBF Global, and partners.
- b. Partners are different, both from each other and from what they were in 2004. Some partners, even within a category, have a greater need than others for funding through CBFNC channels.
- c. Partners have developed elaborate fundraising structures. Many partners have departments devoted to fundraising. They are no longer dependent on all or a majority of their funding coming from a single denominational source.
- d. The MRP is difficult to adjust. The unified approach will allow us to be more nimble and flexible in meeting changing needs.

3. Why is there no amount for CBF Global?

CBFNC values its partnership with CBF Global and has always encouraged churches and individuals to give generously to CBF causes – undesignated, Global Missions Offering, and special designated gifts. CBFNC has never had CBF Global as a line item in its budget, but only as an optional line in the MRP. Ultimately, each church has always determined how much to fund CBF Global (and how to designate that support), and CBFNC has faithfully processed these gifts from churches to CBF Global. CBFNC will continue this practice through designation on the remittance envelope (see below) or other instructions.

4. What was the process for determining partner allocations?

The CBFNC Partnership Development Committee (PDC), under the auspices of the Coordinating Council, led the process. CBFNC began working with partners as early as 2015 to prepare for this change. Partners were engaged in regular dialogue about the new process and have affirmed CBFNC’s transparency. Allocations in the proposed funding plan were developed according to the following criteria:

- a. Partner request – All partners were asked to make funding requests and supply pertinent information about their organization, how the funds would be used, and collaboration with CBFNC and partner churches. These requests served as the starting point for determining allocations.

- b. Historical precedent – In general, attempts were made to provide future funding consistent with past funding (CBFNC budget and MRP), up to $100,000.
- c. Alignment – Attention was given to how partners affirm CBFNC identity, values, strategic priorities, and to partners' mutual public affirmation of partnership with CBFNC.

The PDC determined partner allocations which were submitted to the Coordinating Council as part of the overall budget development process.

5. How will CBFNC handle designated gifts?

Whether to CBF Global or other partners, CBFNC will continue to honor designated gifts. The CBFNC remittance envelopes (below) have spaces for designated gifts.

6. Why are there no line-item comparisons to previous years?

Because the new funding plan is so different from previous budgets, and because MRP amounts in the past were always estimates, there is no way to provide an accurate "apples to apples" comparison between the 2018–2019 budget and the proposed plan. In future years, we will be able to provide a comparison, as has been done with the regular budget in previous years.

7. If we have questions about the new funding plan, whom should we contact?

For questions about the funding plan or your church's giving through CBFNC, please contact our office and ask to speak to Larry Hovis, Jim Hylton, or Andy Jung.

Speaker & Leader Bios

MARIA AMAYA was born in Honduras. Maria is a therapist and coach. She is a member of "Iglesia Cristiana Sin Fronteras" in Winston-Salem. She is actively involved with the Latino community in Forsyth County in the medical and mental health field.

PAUL BAXLEY is the new executive coordinator of CBF Global. Paul is a Winston-Salem native and has held pastorates and ministry positions in Georgia, North Carolina and Virginia. Most recently, Paul served as Senior Minister of First, Athens in Georgia for more than seven years, following six years as senior minister of First, Henderson, NC. Paul holds degrees from Wake Forest University, Duke Divinity School and The Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond. Paul is a former member of the CBF Governing Board, where he chaired the Personnel Committee as well as the Global Mission Structure and Staffing Committee.

TOD BOLSINGER is the vice president and chief of leadership formation at Fuller Theological Seminary. Dr. Bolsinger previously served as senior pastor of San Clemente Presbyterian Church from 1997 to 2014. He holds both a Ph.D. in Theology and Master of Divinity from Fuller and has extensive experience in church and nonprofit consulting and executive coaching. Bolsinger has authored three books, It Takes a Church to Raise a Christian: How the Community of God Transforms Lives (Brazos, 2004), Show Time: Living Down Hypocrisy by Living Out the Faith (Baker, 2005), and Canoeing the Mountains: Christian Leadership in Uncharted Territory (IVP Books, 2015).

TOMMY BRATTON is the minister of Christian formation at First, Asheville. He attended Furman University and the Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta. Post-graduate studies include a certification in Spiritual Direction from the Haden Institute, and a certification in Labyrinth Facilitation from Veriditas. He is currently working on his Ed.D. from Western Carolina University. Tommy and his wife, Laura, have three sons. Tommy enjoys reading, listening to classic country songs, playing ping pong, and watching sports.

PAUL BURGESS serves as senior pastor of Winter Park, Wilmington. Paul attended Campbell University Divinity School and has served NC churches in Chapel Hill, Smithfield, Clayton, and most recently, Benson. Paul and his wife, Eliza, have two children. Paul enjoys running, carpentry, working outside and adding to his bow tie collection.

RICK BURNETTE is a CBF field personnel appointed to coordinate and manage the U.S. domestic disaster mitigation and response efforts in collaboration with CBF state and regional organizations and partners. Rick, a North Carolina native, received bachelor's and master's degrees in Plant and Soil Science from the University of Tennessee in Knoxville. For nearly 30 years, his work has been focused on international agriculture development ministry.

JENNIFER CAMPBELL is the minister of children and families at First, High Point. Jennifer loves helping children and families grow in their faith and teaching them about the love of Jesus. Jennifer has previously served at First Baptist Church of Orangeburg, S.C. and Central United Methodist in Asheboro, N.C. Jennifer has a Bachelor of Arts in Public Relations from the University of South Carolina Honors College. Jennifer and her husband Joel, senior minister at First Baptist, have two sons. Her favorite things to do are spend time with her family and travel.

LEE CANIPE has served as the senior pastor of Providence Church since 2016. He and his wife, Hilary, are the parents of a daughter, Helen, and two sons, Watt and Peter.

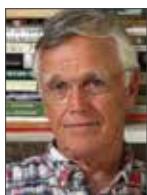

ROBERT COOKE is a pastoral counselor at Triangle Pastoral Counseling where he provides pastoral psychotherapy to families and individuals in English and in Spanish. He is the Chair of Theological and Social Concerns Committee, a member of the Professional Advisory Board for the NC State Health Plan, a member of the CBF Endorsement Council and the chair of the Board of Examiners of NC Free-Based Practicing Pastoral Counselors.

J. DANIEL DAY was a pastor for more than forty years and is now pastor emeritus of First, Raleigh. He spent five years on the faculty of Campbell University Divinity School teaching worship and preaching. A native Oklahoman, he earned master's (M.Div.) and doctoral (Ph.D.) degrees from Southwestern Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas. He and his wife are the parents of twin sons and the grandparents of five.

PAM DURSO is executive director of Baptist Women in Ministry, where she is an advocate and a resource for women serving in all areas of Christian ministry. Pam received her Ph.D. in church history from Baylor University and has written and edited numerous articles and books, most of which focus on Baptist history and/or women ministers. Previously, she worked as associate executive director of the Baptist History and Heritage Society and served on the faculty of Campbell University Divinity School as assistant professor of church history and Baptist heritage. She currently teaches at McAfee School of Theology in Atlanta as an adjunct professor.

CLYDE EDGERTON is the author of ten novels, a book of advice, a memoir, short stories, and essays. He has been a Guggenheim Fellow and five of his novels have been New York Times Notable Books. He is a member of the Fellowship of Southern Writers and is the Thomas S. Kenan III Distinguished Professor of Creative Writing at UNC Wilmington. He lives in Wilmington, with his wife, Kristina, and their children.

MARY FOSKETT teaches biblical studies as Wake Forest Kahle Professor of Religious Studies at Wake Forest University. She and her husband, Scott Hudgins, are members of First Baptist Church on Fifth Street in Winston-Salem. Their son, Daniel, also a member at First on Fifth, is a student at Mars Hill University.

BARRETT FREEMAN is a pastor at Mt. Carmel Church in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. He has travelled across the state as a speaker for a number of colleges and organizations. He loves to write and has published curricula, devotionals, and articles on a variety of Christian topics.

CURTIS W. FREEMAN is research professor of theology and director of the Baptist House of Studies at Duke University Divinity School. He is an ordained Baptist minister and serves on the Baptist World Alliance Commission on Doctrine and Christian Unity. His books include Contesting Catholicity and Undomesticated Dissent.

CHRIS GAMBILL is the director of the Center for Congregational Health, a ministry of the FaithHealth Division at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center, Winston-Salem. He is a church consultant, board-certified coach, and an educator. Chris creates and leads training programs designed to help ministers and lay leaders to become more effective in their congregations. He received a B.A. from Wake Forest University, an M.Div. from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and a Ph.D. in Industrial-organizational psychology from Capella University.

ANDREW GARNETT is the minister for serving Christ at Forest Hills Baptist in Raleigh. Andrew enjoys hiking, reading a good book, visiting historical sites, and playing board games—and the more complicated the board game, the better!

TERRY HENDERSON is the founder and pastor of Unity Christian Church International in Fayetteville. During his years in ministry, he has developed a passion for leading others to Christ and making disciples through Christian education and practical Kingdom experience. Terry holds a Bachelor of Science degree in business management from National Louis University and the Master of Divinity degree from Campbell University Divinity School. He began full time ministry upon retiring from the US Army after 23 years of loyal service.

RACHEL HUNT HILL is a native of Arlington, TX, and received her B.A. at Baylor University. She received her M.Div. from Truett Seminary and completed eight units of CPE at Duke University Medical Center and UNC Hospital. She was ordained by First, Burlington and is endorsed by CBF. Rachel received a Th.M. in Pastoral Care from Duke Divinity School. She began working at Hospice Cleveland County as a chaplain in 2010, and is currently the vice president of homecare services for HCC. Rachel received board certification from the Association of Professional Chaplains. Rachel is married to Garin Hill, pastor at First, Forest City. They have two sons.

SETH HIX has been the church engagement coordinator at CBF of North Carolina since 2017. His responsibilities include leadership of the Ministerial Transitions Team, Reference and Referral services, support of theological education and a focus on strengthening relationships with local congregations. Seth is a graduate of Samford University and Wake Forest School of Divinity. Before arriving in North Carolina, he served local churches in Alabama, Virginia and Kentucky. Seth, his wife Genelle, and their two children are members of First, Greensboro.

LARRY HOVIS has been executive coordinator of CBF of North Carolina since 2004. His responsibilities including bringing together the diverse parts of CBFNC into a coherent and efficient whole to accomplish our purpose of “bringing Baptists of North Carolina together for Christ-centered ministry.” Prior to accepting this position in 2004, he was pastor at The Memorial, Greenville. He is married to Kim. They have a daughter, Lauren, who lives and works in Washington, DC. Larry enjoys cycling, traveling with his family, and watching sports.

LYDIA H. HOYLE teaches courses in Christian history, American religion, and Baptist history at Campbell University Divinity School. Her research interests and publications have included work in the areas of women and missions, children and mission education, Baptist history, and women in ministry. Currently, she is working on a study of Baptists and children. Dr. Hoyle is married to Rick Hoyle, a social psychologist at Duke University. In addition to her involvement in a local congregation, Dr. Hoyle teaches, preaches, and leads retreats in churches across the state.

GREG JARRELL is co-founder and chief door answerer at QC Family Tree, a community of rooted discipleship in the west Charlotte neighborhood of Enderly Park. Greg shares life there with a host of neighbors who have become family, as well as his wife, Helms, and sons, John Tyson and Zeb. Greg is the author of A Riff of Love: Notes on Community and Belonging, from Cascade Books (2018).

LIBBY JOHNSON is a native of Wilmington and a lifetime member of Winter Park, Wilmington. She graduated from Campbell University Divinity School in 2016 with a Master of Divinity and was then ordained as a Baptist minister. After graduation she became a certified Christian leadership coach, an associate certified coach and a member of the International Coaching Federation. Having felt God's call to ministry later in life, Libby has a unique perspective with which to minister. Her passion is to inspire confidence in others as they discover their fullest life.

BARRY JONES is a professor of Old Testament and Hebrew at Campbell University Divinity School where he has taught since 2000. He is a graduate of Campbell University and received the Ph.D. from Duke University. He has preached and taught in churches across North Carolina. He and his family are members of First, Raleigh.

LINDA JONES has been the missions coordinator at CBFNC since 2006. Her responsibilities include bringing together resources, volunteers and staff to develop and accomplish the CBFNC missions plans and goals. She recently earned her D.Min. from Gardner-Webb School of Divinity. She was the associate pastor for missions and outreach at Winter Park, Wilmington. She and her spouse, Joseph, have two grown children and five grandsons. Linda loves theatre and the arts and attends First, Winston-Salem.

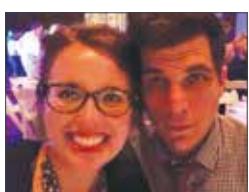

RICK JORDAN has been the church resources coordinator of CBFNC for nearly 17 years. Before that, he was a pastor, a Christian educator, a chaplain, and a youth minister. He has been teaching an adult Bible study at his church for over a dozen years. Rick is also president of Great Bible Teachers, Inc. He is the author of The Alphabet of Errors: How to Teach the Bible Better and of a new curriculum series, Central Themes of the Bible. Rick and his wife, Susan, have two grown, married sons.

Kyle spent 20 years working as a recording artist and songwriter for BMG and Universal Publishing companies in Nashville, TN, where his songs were recorded by over 70 major artists and won the Dove, Stellar, GMA and numerous ASCAP and BMI awards. In 2008, he transitioned to pastoral ministry to give expression to his commitment to a more interpersonal ministry, sound theology, and spiritual health.

EMILY HULL MCGEE is pastor at First, Winston-Salem. She came to ministry through her love for music and the arts, which she pursued at Furman University and Northwestern University. She attended Wake Forest University School of Divinity, where she was called to the ministry of the local church. She previously served as minister to young adults at Highland Baptist in Louisville, Kentucky. Emily enjoys contributing to our larger Baptist family by serving in leadership on a variety of organizational boards in CBF life.

JIM MCCONNELL, a native of Indianapolis, IN, began his professional life as an electrical engineer for 14 years after earning a bachelor's degree from NC State University. He then transitioned into full-time church ministry, earning his M.Div. from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and a Ph.D. in New Testament from Baylor University. In 2009 he joined the faculty of the School of Divinity at Gardner-Webb. Jim and his wife, Susan, have three children. They attend First, Shelby, where they serve in various ministry capacities.

TIM MOORE is the writer-in-residence and former pastor at Sardis Baptist Church in Charlotte. He is the author of Practicing Midrash and is currently working on a new book with Mandy England Cole: Following Jesus: New Considerations on Believer's Baptism.

ALICIA MYERS teaches New Testament and Greek. She earned her Ph.D. from Baylor University in 2010. Prior to joining the faculty at Campbell Divinity, she taught at United Theological Seminary in Dayton, OH. A constant feature of her research is an interest in how rhetoric and ancient literature can aid our understanding of the New Testament, especially the Gospel and Letters of John.

STACY NOWELL is pastor of First, Huntersville. She is a graduate of Baylor University with a B.A. in religion and a minor in family studies. She received her Master of Divinity from McAfee School of Theology. Stacy has previously served at churches including First, Decatur, GA; First, Dalton, GA; and Harrisonburg Baptist in Harrisonburg, VA. Stacy's service in the larger Baptist community includes tenures on the national CBF Coordinating Council, the CBF Nominating Committee, and Virginia CBF Coordinating Council. She currently serves on the Board of Visitors for McAfee School of Theology and the Coordinating Council of CBFNC.

TODD PADGETT has embraced and served the people God has placed in his path during his 15 years of ministry across Georgia, Tennessee and NC. Todd enjoys learning each person's story and the way we all are connected through Christ. Todd and his wife, Kelly, have two children. They enjoy trips to the beach, camping trips to the mountains, and an eclectic mix of music, movies, and art. Todd graduated from The University of Tennessee, North Carolina State University, and McAfee School of Theology. He is currently the local coordinator for Disaster Response in Columbus County for CBF.
