

Ashoka U Exchange

The Mason contingent included two people from MEC: Sean Mallon, Associate Vice President of Entrepreneurship and Innovation, and Aaron Miller, International Trade Manager for the Virginia SBDC Network and Concentration Head of Social Entrepreneurship, MAIS. Bethany Usher, Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education; Lisa Gring-Pemble, Associate Professor and Director of Social Entrepreneurship and Global Impact at the School of Business; Paul Rogers, Senior Scholar at the Center for the Advancement of Well-Being, also attended. Participating students included Kathryn Walker, a graduate Interdisciplinary Studies student concentrating in Social Entrepreneurship, and Leohana Carrera, an undergraduate student in Government and International Affairs.