Prerequisites

No prerequisites required.

Join us for free, interactive courses to learn about disaster preparedness needs specific to Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. This course is designed to be appropriate for everyone and will focus on personal preparedness, organizational preparedness, government & organization coordination, and much more. While each course topic can work independently, we encourage participants to attend as many sessions as possible, as this series is designed to build connection between the various aspects of preparedness. Join us for an “Hour of Preparedness Power”. Training dates may change.
