

INTERESTED IN CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOLS?
HIGH SCHOOL INFORMATION NIGHTS ARE HERE!

Area Catholic high schools will be holding their annual “High School Information Nights” at local elementary schools in the Archdiocese during late September and October. These special drop-in style events give students and their parents a chance to explore what area Catholic High Schools have to offer. Representatives from the high schools will be available to answer questions about curriculum, extra-curriculars, open houses, shadow days, and of course, cost. (SJA hosted one of these nights last year and families who attended said it was extremely helpful to have all the schools in one spot.)

ALL EVENINGS WILL BE OPEN FROM 6:00—7:30 P.M.
NO PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED!

The following is this year's schedule:

SEPTEMBER 25 — ST. LAWRENCE (Utica)
OCTOBER 2 — HOLY FAMILY REGIONAL SCHOOL (Rochester)
