March 21, 2024 (Waynesboro, Virginia) – C&F is excited to welcome Michelle Pickett as a Loan Officer in the Waynesboro branch. She has over 30 years of experience in the mortgage industry where she has served as an officer of the Central Virginia Mortgage Bankers Association and a board member of the Home Builders of Virginia and Augusta Homebuilders Association.

As an experienced lender, Michelle is an active participant in local real estate functions and loves working with the community to assist with homeownership needs. “Getting to help my clients build wealth for themselves and their families through the benefits of homeownership is my biggest motivator,” she stated. By joining C&F, Michelle is excited to work with an established group of professionals with a wealth of knowledge and experience. “C&F has an excellent reputation in the local market and the ability to lend in 7 states opens more possibilities for me to serve my clientele,” she said.

“We are thrilled to welcome Michelle to our team of local industry experts and know her strong community connection will help us to continue to exceed expectations,” stated Bryan McKernon, President of C&F Mortgage Corporation.

Michelle prides herself on the number of clients and families that she has helped realize their dream of homeownership. “My family and friends would describe me as dedicated, trustworthy, reliable and goal-oriented,” she stated – all assets that will serve her well at C&F. When Michelle is not assisting her borrowers, you can find her on the water or spending time with friends and family at a local brewery or winery.
