Dance with some of the legends of Yonge Street

While you may not be able to visit our 22-storey Music Murals in real life, we've created these themed playlists that you can use for your dance party.

Don't forget to listen to both the A side \(1950's\) and the B side \(1960's\).

4:00PM

Let your inner DJ shine!

Did you know Toronto has a Sound Museum, and it's (virtually) located in Downtown Yonge? Massey Hall has over 100 different sounds you can download to make your own Massey Hall remixes.

11:00AM

Local Food & Moves

Start your day off by attending a music-filled online workout class, and fuel up by ordering your favourite breakfast from one of the many options, including Fran's Restaurant, which was one of Glenn Gould's favourite places (check out our 2pm activity to learn more about him). His go-to was scrambled eggs.

2:00PM

Get to know Glenn Gould

Canada's most renowned classical musician of the 20th century, Glenn Gould spent a lot of his time composing in the Eaton Auditorium (now The Carlu). Explore The Glenn Gould Archive while snacking on some patties from Patties Express or a burrito from Chipotle.

6:00PM

Be inspired by the musical history of Toronto

Wind down from your DJ party with an amazing meal from a local Downtown Yonge favourite while watching Once Were Brothers: Robbie Robertson & The Band, telling the story of how they went from performing at Toronto bars to backing up the legendary Bob Dylan to becoming one of the most influential groups of its era.
