BISHOP MCGOVERN URGES QUICK ACTION

Bishop McGovern is asking area Catholics and people of good will to contact their state lawmakers as soon as possible. See his new letter below about the last-minute effort in the State Assembly to repeal the Parental Notification of Abortion law. Read more about the proposed law here: www.ilcatholic.org.

Dear Friends,

Illinois legislators have only a few days left to act on legislation that was introduced in the General Assembly this session. Unfortunately, several lawmakers are trying to repeal the Parental Notification of Abortion Act.

Our current, common-sense law requires that a parent or guardian of a minor girl be notified if the child is scheduled for an abortion procedure. Our parents have a right to know if irreversible surgery is being performed on their child.

The negative ramifications of repealing the Parental Notice law would be significant for minor girls, their parents and family life. I have already spoken with several legislators in the Belleville Diocese about why they should oppose this proposed repeal. But they also need to hear from parents and guardians, those whom this bill will affect the most.

Call your state senator at 1-866-974-8813 – Vote NO on SB 2190

Call your state representative at 1-866-587-3023 -Vote NO on HB 1797

Go to the website: <https://www.saveparentalnotification.com> for additional information or to find the names of your state representative or senator.

Join me in praying that the rights of parents and guardians in Illinois will be upheld.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Bishop Michael McGovern

Respect Life Corner—“Christ entered once and for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves, but with His own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption.” In the Second Reading to the Hebrews, 9:11-15, before Christ's death and resurrection, only the high priest was allowed to enter the Holy of Holies to offer sin sacrifices for himself and for the people. Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement was considered one of the most important days of early Judaism. But today, we know that Jesus' sacrifice was so much greater and perfect. Christ is the perfect high priest who passed into the heavenly tabernacle. Christ is the perfect sacrifice, who with His own body and blood has redeemed the world.

Learn, Act, Connect and Pray—Pope Francis calls us to The Eucharist, which, “communicates the Lord's love for us: a love so great that it nourishes us with himself; a freely given love always available to everyone who hungers.” We have been fed through Christ's self-gift. We must respond with thanks, in works of charity and action to defend the dignity of all human life. You are invited to join the Diocesan Racial Justice and Equity Committee to pray “A Requiem for Black Children of God” composed by Bishop Ferd Cheri on Sunday June 13 at 2 pm at St. Augustine of Hippo in East St. Louis. All are welcome. The prayer service will be livestreamed on St. Augustine's Facebook page.

Christian Initiation & Adult Sacraments

Our parish continues the year-round process of welcoming others into the Catholic Church through the process of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, which prepares anyone over the age of reason (about 8 years old) to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. We also offer a period of formation for Baptized adults who desire to complete their sacramental initiation in the Catholic Church. If you or someone you know is interested in beginning or completing initiation into the Catholic Church, please call the Parish Office for assistance and more information.

Baptism Preparation Class

Anyone who is anticipating the birth of a child and has not had the baptismal preparation class within the past 5 years is required to attend. You may attend prior to or after the birth of your child. Please contact Sr. Annette (233-3500) for more information.

Parishes' School of Religion

Registration papers for next year's Parishes' School of Religion are due in the office as soon as possible. We are preparing for the 2021-2022 school year. Registrations help us to determine how many books and supplies we will need for the year. We will continue to keep all of our PSR families in our prayers during these summer months.

Father's Day Special Mass Intentions

Father's Day is just around the corner and many of us are looking for that special gift to give our father that shows our great appreciation for all he has done for us. St. Teresa Parish and School community extends an opportunity for all of us to remember and honor our fathers, both living and deceased, in a very special way this coming Father's Day, June 20. By means of a donation to St. Teresa School, Masses on Father's Day at St. Teresa Church will be offered for or in memory of your father. A special Father's Day card will be sent to the one you are honoring or directly to you. A list of all individuals who have a donation made in their name will be displayed at church. Simply fill out and return the Father's Day remembrance cards located in the back of church By June 14. For questions, contact the rectory.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

June 6, 2021

On the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, we give special honor to Jesus, truly present in the most Blessed Sacrament of the altar. As Catholics, we worship the presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist, both during Mass and outside of Mass. We are encouraged to spend time in prayer before the Lord in the Eucharist. Many parishes offer regular exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in a monstrance. We may also choose to visit the church at other times to adore the Blessed Sacrament reserved in the tabernacle.

Why does Jesus give himself to us as food and drink?

Jesus gives himself to us in the Eucharist as spiritual nourishment because he loves us. God's whole plan for our salvation is directed to our participation in the life of the Trinity, the communion of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Our sharing in this life begins with our Baptism, when by the power of the Holy Spirit we are joined to Christ, thus becoming adopted sons and daughters of the Father. It is strengthened and increased in Confirmation. It is nourished and deepened through our participation in the Eucharist. By eating the Body and drinking the Blood of Christ in the Eucharist we become united to the person of Christ through his humanity. . . . In being united to the humanity of Christ we are at the same time united to his divinity. Our mortal and corruptible natures are transformed by being joined to the source of life. . . .

By being united to Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in us, we are drawn up into the eternal relationship of love among the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. As Jesus is the eternal Son of God by nature, so we become sons and daughters of God by adoption through the sacrament of Baptism. Through the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation (Chrismation), we are temples of the Holy Spirit, who dwells in us, and by his in dwelling we are made holy by the gift of sanctifying grace. The ultimate promise of the Gospel is that we will share in the life of the Holy Trinity. The Fathers of the Church called this participation in the divine life "divinization" (theosis). In this we see that God does not merely send us good things from on high; instead, we are brought up into the inner life of God, the communion among the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. In the celebration of the Eucharist (which means "thanksgiving") we give praise and glory to God for this sublime gift.

When the bread and wine become the Body of Christ, why do they still look and taste like bread and wine?

In the celebration of the Eucharist, the glorified Christ becomes present under the appearances of bread and wine in a way that is unique, a way that is uniquely suited to the Eucharist. In the Church's traditional theological language, in the act of consecration during the Eucharist the "substance" of the bread and wine is changed by the power of the Holy Spirit into the "substance" of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. At the same time, the "accidents" or appearances of bread and wine remain. "Substance" and "accident" are here used as philosophical terms that have been adapted by great medieval theologians such as St. Thomas Aquinas in their efforts to understand and explain the faith. Such terms are used to convey the fact that what appears to be bread and wine in every way (at the level of "accidents" or physical attributes—that is, what can be seen, touched, tasted, or measured) in fact is now the Body and Blood of Christ (at the level of "substance" or deepest reality). This change at the level of substance from bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ is called "transubstantiation." According to Catholic faith, we can speak of the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist because this transubstantiation has occurred (cf. Catechism, no. 1376).

Anima Christi Prayer

Soul of Christ, be my sanctification.
Body of Christ, be my salvation.
Blood of Christ, fill all my veins.
Water of Christ's side, wash out my stains.
Passion of Christ, my comfort be.
O good Jesus, listen to me.
In Thy wounds I fain would hide,
Ne'er to be parted from Thy side,

Guard me, should the foe assail me.
Call me when my life shall fail me.
Bid me come to Thee above,
With Thy saints to sing Thy love,
World without end.
Amen.

Bread from Elizabeth's table

Elizabeth's house is always filled with love, joy, comfort, good times — and fresh bread.

Of course, things come slower these days for 82-year-old Elizabeth. The simplest tasks take more time and demand more energy than they did even just a few years ago. But on days when her grandchildren are coming to visit, Elizabeth gets up very early and plants herself in her beloved kitchen. Her hands, gnarled by arthritis, carefully mix the batter, knead the dough, blend in the sweet cinnamon swirl, and bake the loaves. The work demands much more of her physically than the first time she made the recipe for her young family, but the satisfaction of seeing the loaves rise in the oven and the sweet aroma filling the old house more than offset the demands.

Her children and grandchildren, who have feasted on the bread since they first took pieces of the loaf in their tiny hands so many years ago, realize the effort it takes her now — but that makes it all the more special. They would never dare suggest that she stop making it. For Elizabeth's cinnamon bread contains much more than the flour, water, cinnamon and other ingredients. It is not about making bread but the love it expresses. In her loving preparation of the bread for her family, Elizabeth includes a most special ingredient: a piece of herself.

And that special ingredient will continue to be included in every loaf her children and grandchildren and their children will bake long after Elizabeth has gone to God.

In much the same way that Elizabeth's family realizes that her cinnamon bread contains her love for them, the bread and wine of the Eucharist contains the love of Christ for us — the Christ who suffered, died and rose. Christ places "a piece of himself" in this bread and invites us to feast on him, to be nourished and sustained by his life until we take our places for eternity at the great banquet of heaven. The Eucharist that is the focus of today's feast of the Body and Blood of the Lord is the living memory of the Christ who gave himself for us so that we might become what we receive here: to become the one body of Christ, to become family to one another.
