Prayer Before an Election

Lord God,

As the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community.

We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty.

We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender.

We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your kingdom.

We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your kingdom of Justice and peace.

We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 25:6-10a. Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6. Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20. Matthew 22:1-14.

Don't Kill the Messenger. We have another Kingdom of God/Heaven parable today. It is about being gracious and prepared. Who, in a right mind, would snub a gracious invitation to a feast? Who, in a right mind, would kill the messenger? It happened to Jesus. We should not be surprised when it happens to us in little or big ways. Still, we must announce: "Come to the feast, come to the Kingdom." The required wedding garment in this gospel feast reminds us, who live in this Kingdom of God, to always imagine we wear our baptismal cloths; and thus, always remember to act as faithful disciples.

- What Good News will I proclaim this week?
- What good deed will I do?
- Whom will I invite to do some baptism-inspired activity with me?

Community Interfaith Food Pantry Needs Help!

Our food pantry is in urgent need of an assistant treasurer to train under our current treasurer and then assume his duties next April. This is a volunteer position and requires about 10 hours per week. Some financial background/expertise would be helpful. If interested, please call the pantry at 355-9199 and ask for Dan.

Since the beginning of our pantry, the treasurer has come from the parish partnership of St. Teresa/St. Luke. Let's keep up that tradition!

Student Records

The student records for anyone who graduated in 2015 from St. Teresa School are now available for distribution. If interested, parents should contact the school office at 235-4066 by October 15 to make arrangements for delivery/pick up. These student records will only be available until October 15th, after which they will be shredded. A copy of the permanent student records are maintained by the Diocesan Office of Education

St. Teresa SVDP conference fiscal year ended 9/30/20. During this year, even amidst the COVID crisis, SVDP assisted 145 families providing $18,098 for utilities, rent, food and other emergencies for which families were not prepared. Our members responded to the 471 calls received on the Parish phone line for assistance. We continue to volunteer to support the SVDP Council in East St. Louis, the Interfaith Food Pantry, the Summer Sack Lunch and other programs that support those in need who live within our parish boundaries. All of this is made possible through the gifts received from St. Teresa parishioners and SVDP humbly thanks you for your generosity. To learn more about SVDP, please pick up one of our brochures in the front foyer of church.

Community Interfaith Food Pantry

► This week's needed item: Pasta, Rice & Helpers Also: plastic, paper & cloth bags.

Please leave your items in either church and they will be taken to the pantry. Monetary donations can be placed in the Sunday collections, mark envelope "Food Pantry", & will assist in buying perishables.

We would like to thank all who have volunteered to help keep our Liturgies going while keeping everyone safe. This has been a large undertaking and we needed lots of help. We could still use more volunteers so as to not burn anyone out. If you can help in any capacity - helping with sign-in, Ushering, Lectoring, Eucharistic Ministering, sanitizing after Mass - please contact the rectory at 233-3500. Again a big thank you to all!

We had a successful opening of our Parishes' School of Religion on Sunday, September 27 and Wednesday, September 30. With all of the guidelines that have been given to us, it went smoothly. We have 99 students in person and 32 for remote learning with a total of 131 students. We still have a few that have not registered but we are hoping that will happen soon.

Thank you for your support of our Parishes' School of Religion.

We are happy to have our students with us in person and we are also blessed to have our parents share their faith with their children in the home setting.

May God continue to send blessings to all students, staff and parents as we live through these unusual times.

Sister Theresa Markus, S.S.N.D. & Sister Carol Markus, S.S.N.D.

Co-coordinators of the Parishes' School of Religion

Sharing the Gospel

Imagine how it would feel to be invited by a king to come to his palace for a party! Well, you have been invited! God wants you to come. People who ignore God will not go to heaven. Don't ignore God. Say "yes" to his invitation. Go to God's party in heaven!

Prayer

Thank you for inviting me to heaven, God. I want to go!

"2 for Seder"

October 27 marks the third anniversary of the massacre at Pittsburgh's Tree of Life Synagogue. Eleven worshippers were killed during the Saturday morning services.

One of them was 75-year-old Joyce Feinberg. Her daughter-in-law, Marnie Feinberg, turned her grief and anger into an opportunity for reconciliation and peace. With her longtime friend Lauren Kline, Marnie started "2 for Seder," an initiative based on a simple idea: Jewish Americans invite two non-Jews to attend their family's Passover Seder. That first Passover in the spring of 2019, more than 1,000 people took part. COVID-19 muted this year's Passover celebration, but "2 for Seder" is looking ahead to 2021.

Marnie Feinberg believes that the simple gesture of inviting two new non-Jewish guests to Seder can have a profound and lasting effect. In an interview on NPR, she explains:

"When my husband and I were first married, Joyce sort of tutored me on how to do the proper Seder over time. Joyce made a point of having many guests at every Seder, a lot of international friends and co-workers and students who were not where their families were . . . [Joyce] just wanted to make sure you were comfortable. She didn't distinguish between any value of any sort. It was — you are a friend, you are an acquaintance, you are welcome in our home."

Joyce's ability to connect, Marnie says, leads to understanding and knowledge — and "knowledge is power. If [guests] know a little bit more about us being Jewish, two years from now, or ten years from now, they could be in a conversation where someone says something very negative about Judaism, and they say, 'You know what? I think you're wrong.'"

Marnie and Lauren are busy inviting families to participate in "2 for Seder" at Passover next spring. "Sharing the warmth of your Jewish home," Marnie writes, "builds an understanding of who we are that goes beyond the Haggadah story. By setting two extra places and making a few more matzo balls, we can take part in the ongoing and critical battle to reduce anti-Semitism."

[INPR, April 19, 2019; Hadassah Magazine, March 2019; Kveller, March 29, 2019.]

Like the "2 for Seder" table that welcomes non-Jews in peace, God invites sovereigns and peasants, scholars and laborers, the elderly and children to God's banquet table. No matter our circumstances, despite our doubts and sense of unworthiness, regardless of our fears of what we don't know or can't control, God says "Come to my table," a table that extends from our own family table in this time and place to God's great banquet table in the next. The only obstacle to accepting God's invitation is our refusal to understand the different perspectives and attitudes of those whom God has also invited to the feast.
