KEVIN CHIN LAUNCHES CAMPAIGN TO REPRESENT HOWARD COUNTY COUNCIL DISTRICT 1

Dr. Kevin Chin declares his candidacy for the Howard County Council District 1. Dr. Chin is an experienced Emergency Room physician and community advocate. He brings a wealth of healthcare and volunteer experience as well as a deep commitment to the prosperity of Howard County.

Throughout his years of service as an Emergency Room physician at MedStar and his active involvement in community organizations, Dr. Chin has demonstrated an exceptional commitment to public service, consistently prioritizing the needs of those he serves. His background as a physician specializing in emergency medicine has uniquely positioned him to address critical issues facing the community.

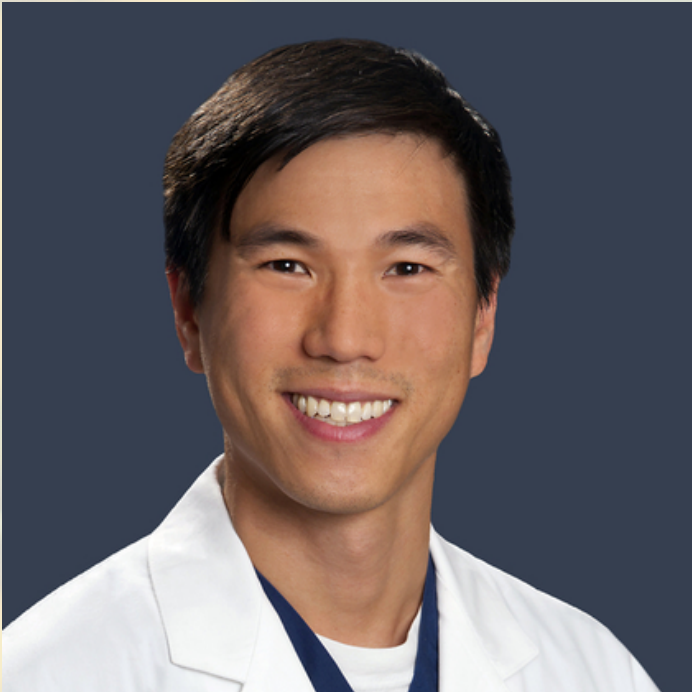

In announcing his candidacy, Dr. Chin emphasized his unique background as a full-time doctor and community advocate, "Our community needs elected officials who have demonstrated a history of local service and advocacy for improving the lives of Howard Countians. As a healthcare professional who treats patients in crisis and as a volunteer and advocate, I have shown a commitment to improving housing affordability, school funding, public safety, and environmental preservation"

State Senator Clarence Lam MD noted, "As physicians, both Kevin and I understand the impact government policy has on people's health. I am endorsing him because he will work tirelessly to ensure the well-being of the residents of District 1."

Dr. Chin's commitment to public service includes addressing housing affordability and educational funding. "Kevin is a smart, empathetic individual who is committed to making Howard County a welcoming and inclusive community," said Laurie Liskin, Dorsey Search resident.

"Kevin is the smart, knowledgeable leader our community needs. I know he will be fully committed to providing for District 1," said Byron MacFarlane, Howard County Register of Wills.

Throughout his community involvement, Dr. Chin has championed initiatives to enhance quality of life including serving as a Steering Committee member of the Howard County Housing Affordability Coalition, advocating for affordable housing so teachers, police, and first responders can live in the community they serve; serving on the Operating Budget Review Committee for Howard County Public School System to support stronger school funding; and as a Board Member of Patapsco Heritage Greenway, working to protect its natural resources and waterways.

I have worked closely with Kevin over the past few years in the housing coalition. He is passionate and cares about his community. He will make a fantastic councilmember," said Dana Sohr, Howard County resident.

"I am endorsing Kevin because he is smart, hard working and genuine. He cares about the community and will lead Howard County with integrity," said State Delegate Chao Wu.

Dr. Chin's campaign will focus on critical issues facing residents of Howard County's District 1 -- supporting schools and students by improving funding for instruction and programs; improving public safety and reducing crime rates especially in vulnerable areas along Route 1; maintaining world-class parks and keeping waterways clean; and making housing more affordable for young families, teachers, and first responders. He aims to bridge divisions and work collaboratively to find practical solutions that benefit all District 1 residents.

About Dr. Kevin Chin:
Dr. Kevin Chin has been a dedicated Emergency Room physician at MedStar and Assistant Professor of Clinical Emergency Medicine at Georgetown University. When not treating patients, Kevin is a husband, new father, and dedicated community activist who has called Ellicott City home since 2019.

Kevin graduated with dual degrees in Neurobiology and Psychology from the University of Maryland College Park and received his Doctor of Medicine from the University of Miami. As a new dad, he is more inspired than ever to make the community a better place for the next generation.
