

CHARLIE D. DISC JOCKEY

Charlie D has been performing for audiences for 30 years. He was born in Jersey City and moved to Long Island in his high school years. He moved back to New Jersey and settled in Cherry Hill, New Jersey in 1985 and raised his own family there. He was weened on big band, vocalists of the 50's and, of course, rock and roll teen idols. But his interests don't stop there. He is a trivia nut and loves to engage in conversation about the music that we love.

He started his disc jockey company in 1988 and went from working 18 parties the first year to averging 90 parties for over 28 years. He can entertain all age groups and all occasions. He even does karaoke parties, too.

He relocated to Palm Beach County in 2012 and immediately re-established his disc jockey business and has been thrilling audiences for 6 years.

He has a library of over 300,000 songs so he can virtually play any request you ask for. His motto is, "If the song was on the radio, I have it!" Try to stump him.

He loves to perform the songs that he plays and he will knock your socks off with his performance.

Charlie D will explore pop singers of the 20th century. He has studied this subject for over 30 years. He will take any questions you may have and take requests for artists that he does not cover.

If you want to get up and dance or just sing along, please feel free to do so. His energy is contagious.
