Liturgical Guideline during the Flu Season

Communion under one kind

As a precaution during this especially virulent influenza season, Holy Communion under both kinds will be suspended. Until the flu abates, Holy Communion will be received only under the species of bread (that is, the Body of Christ). Please remember that receiving the Precious Blood is optional. The reason is that all of Christ is present in either the smallest particle of the consecrated bread or in the tiniest drop of the consecrated wine (concomitance). For those who can only receive Communion under the species of wine, they may approach at the end of the Communion line and the priest will administer the chalice to them.

Gesture of Peace

Furthermore, please remember that no one is ever under the obligation to shake hands during the Sign of Peace; indeed, it may be prudent to refrain from handshaking during the flu season. Rather than shaking hands, parishioners may make a statement of peace, or a bow, or some other gesture. The diocesan Office of Worship has recommended parishes consider adopting these liturgical modifications during the flu season.

“Ever Ancient, Ever New,” an Organ Recital by Joel S. Kumro

Sunday, February 10, 7:00pm

Our Choirmaster and Organist Joel S. Kumro will present a recital of sacred and liturgical music on our beautiful Pasi organ on Sunday, February 10, at 7:00pm. The program will include works from the classical repertoire by J.S. Bach, Jean-François Dandrieu, and Girolamo Frescobaldi, along with newly composed works by Aaron David Miller, Gerald Near, Lynn Trapp, David Dahl, Mary Beth Bennett, and David Briggs. A live video stream will be projected downstairs for attendees to watch Joel play. A piece of special interest will be an organ duet for four hands and feet, where Joel will be joined by Jacob Temple, Associate Minister of Music from Saint Bridget Catholic Church. A free-will offering will be taken up to support Saint Benedict music program. A reception will be held following the recital, graciously hosted by

The Lily of the Holy Trinity Women's Society. Parishioners are kindly asked to spread the word about this exciting recital.

Presentation of the Lord

A Mass for the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord will be celebrated on Saturday, February 2 at 5:30pm. Please note that this Mass fulfills the Sunday obligation. According to Church law, Catholics in the United States fulfill the Sunday obligation by attending any Mass between 4:00pm on Saturday and 11:59pm on Sunday (Code of Canon Law, canon 1248 §1). Furthermore, although the Mass celebrated on Saturdays is typically the anticipated (vigil) Mass for Sunday, this is not a requirement; the Mass of the day is also permitted.

Bishop Knestout and the Blessing of Throats

Bishop Barry C. Knestout will celebrate the 11:00am Mass on Sunday, February 3. The blessing of throats will take place at this Mass as well as at the 8:30am Mass (but not the 5:30pm Mass). According to tradition, Saint Blaise, a bishop and martyr of the early Church (died circa 316 A.D.), miraculously dislodged a fish bone that was choking a child. Since then, the Church has invoked his intercession against all diseases of the throat.

Rite of Acceptance

The parish will celebrate the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens on Tuesday, February 5 at 6:30pm (following the 5:30pm Mass). This Rite of Acceptance formally acknowledges and welcomes unbaptized adults who are preparing to receive the Sacraments of Christian Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and the Eucharist. Through the Rite of Acceptance, those preparing to receive these three sacraments will become “catechumens” (literally, “hearers”) of the Word of God. The Rite of Acceptance is not a Mass but rather a Liturgy of the Word followed by the giving of the Sign of the Cross and intercessions for the catechumens. All parishioners are welcome to attend, in order to support those preparing to enter the Church at Easter.

Parish Clean-Up Day

Indoor Edition

A Parish Clean-Up Day will take place on Saturday, February 16 from 9:00am to 12:00N. The focus of the day will be on cleaning the inside of the church. Parishioners of all ages are encouraged to participate. Those interested may sign up on the homepage of the parish website: <https://www.saintbenedictparish.org>

A Bit of Thanks

Volunteer Reception

“I give thanks to my God at every remembrance of you, praying always with joy in my every prayer for all of you, because of your partnership for the gospel from the first day until now” (Philippians 1:3–5). In thanksgiving for all parish volunteers, there will be a holy hour, featuring Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, on Tuesday, February 26 at 5:30pm. A reception will follow at 6:30pm. All parish volunteers are invited to attend, and are asked to RSVP to Ida O’Leary (ioleary@saintbenedictparish.org) by February 19.

Theology on Tap

Talk on Mindfulness: A Catholic Perspective

Monday, February 4, 2019 at 6:30 PM – 8:30 PM

Kitchen 64 (3336 N Boulevard RVA)

We are excited to welcome Sister Kathy Persson OSB, LCSW. In 2018, mindfulness apps topped Apple's trends list. With an increase in public awareness of mental health diagnoses and intervention (anxiety is considered an epidemic by the CDC), mindfulness is among the interventions pursued. What is mindfulness? What are its goals? What compatibility does it have with the Catholic tradition? Learn what light Catholicism and the contemplative prayer tradition have to shed on mindfulness.

Sister Kathy Persson has served as a licensed clinical social worker for nearly 30 years. She worked with Capital Hospice for 10 years, supervised programs for social workers, bereavement staff and chaplains, as well as served as the Executive Director of Threshold Services, Inc., working with adults with mental illness. Sister Kathy left Capital Hospice in 2006 to pursue a vocation with the Benedictine Sisters in Bristow, VA. She currently works in Richmond in the areas of grief, loss, depression, anxiety and trauma. Sister Kathy has her BA from Dominican College in Blauvelt, NY, and her Masters in Social Work from VCU.

Richmond Theology on Tap is held on the first Monday of each month at Kitchen 64 located at 3336 N Boulevard, Richmond, VA. While Theology on Tap is traditionally a Catholic young adult event, we welcome singles and married people of all faith backgrounds to attend. Food and beverages need to be purchased by guest by 7:15pm. Talks are to start at 7:30 pm and ending with a Q&A at 8:30 pm. RSVP on facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/events/2285164615062178/>

While we try to retain people on the sick list as long as necessary, many people place names on the list and never have them removed. If you have added someone to the sick list that can be removed, please let me know so that we know who to pray for. THANK YOU!

The next set of quarterly envelopes (for April, May and June) will go out at the end of March.

Address Change?

Please try to keep me "in the know" if you have changes to your address or phone number. If you move – you will need to inform me of your new address so I can make the change in our database. Similarly, please let me know if your email address will be changing. Along these same lines, in an effort to keep our database current, if you move to another state or parish and will no longer be attending Saint Benedict, you will want to inform me of this so I can de-activate your membership.

A Website BIT

Visit our Website!

We have a wonderful Website that provides a lot of up-to date information. Bookmark it and check it often! <http://www.saintbenedictparish.org> . Note that if there is any change to the daily Mass schedule, this will be posted on the homepage (along with your receiving an update from me).

A Bit More?

Have a look at the Bulletin on-line!

Did you know that the parish bulletin is available on-line at www.discovermass.com. Through this site, you can also sign up to receive the bulletin via email weekly. Please remember to look at the bulletin every week! While my email provides most highlights and I try to include reminders of important events and such, it is but a secondary resource to the primary resource of the bulletin and announcements at the beginning of Mass!

To get the BITS or not... your choice!

If you know of anyone that wishes to receive these emails, please pass my email along to them and tell them to send me an email that requests that I place them on the distribution list.
