TRINITY

STAFFING UPDATE

Trinity Lutheran ChurchSchool is very sad to report that we recently learned that Julie Bushre, our middle school science and sixth-grade homeroom teacher will be leaving us in October. Mrs. Bushre's husband is a Pastor, and he has accepted a Call to a congregation in Wisconsin. We thank Mrs. Bushre for the years of dedicated service that she has provided and for the difference she has made in so many lives.

We are now searching for an able replacement for Mrs. Bushre.

If you know of someone who may possibly be qualified and interested, please have them contact Mr. Meyer right away.

GOD IS ON THE MOVE

This year's ministry theme for Trinity School is: Follow Me (Matthew 9:9).

God certainly has been on the move in the first three weeks of school, coaxing and drawing the students, guiding them to follow in his footsteps.

A couple of weeks ago, a Trinity student felt so led to place tooth fairy and birthday money earnings – all of which totaled $65 – into the chapel offerings. The amount is pretty significant, considering the offering usually consists of coins and small bills.

"I see so many people that are homeless, who don't have any food or clothes. I wanted to save my money to make sure some people could get food through Kids Against Hunger (happening on Oct. 13 at Trinity) - it's the least I could do."

Wow!

What a great story that demonstrates how the Holy Spirit is working in the hearts of the young lives that are being molded right here at Trinity Lutheran ChurchSchool.

For what other purposes do we old people live than to care for, to instruct, and to train the young? It is not possible for foolish youth to instruct and sustain themselves. This is why God has entrusted them to us who are old and know from experience what is good for them. And He will demand a very strict accounting from us for them. (What Luther Says. Vol. III).

As we celebrate Rally Day, we are reminded that it is the responsibility of the church to teach and share the love of Jesus with the young ones – to insure that they Follow Him.
