TRINITY

ALTAR CROSS

Did you notice the crucifix in the Welcome Center as you came into church today? It's the one that sat on Trinity's altar when the church was on 15th and Marquette streets in Davenport. Most recently, the altar cross was used in the 11 a.m. contemporary service. The cross was knocked over last year in the space crunch of classrooms, and the corpus was broken. Repairs were attempted, but the age of the materials made the repair too difficult.

The new corpus is very close to the original in size and style. It has been hand carved and painted by artisans in Italy.

MEET THE NEW STAFF

Trinity Lutheran Church School is very blessed. As Trinity Lutheran began its 149th school year on Tuesday, we welcomed three new rostered LCMS teachers to our faculty and staff.

New to Trinity Lutheran this year are Deje Jensen, Jessica Hedrick and Beth Cross.

Deje Jensen, who most recently served as a preschool director/teacher at Grace Lutheran in DeWitt, Iowa, before accepting Trinity's Call, will be teaching third grade at Trinity this year.

Deje brings more than 20 years of experience in Lutheran schools to Trinity's staff.

Jessica Hedrick, who is Trinity alum, most recently served as a teacher at Our Savior Lutheran School in Alexandria, Va. Jessica will be teaching fifth grade this year.

Beth Cross, who is a new graduate and is from Michigan, will be a seventh-grade home room teacher. She also will be teaching middle school math and PE. Beth is a Concordia Wisconsin graduate.

In addition to the three rostered teachers, Trinity is also blessed to welcome Jim McCartney and Nora Reiter, who will be directing Trinity's band program.

We will have the opportunity to celebrate and recognize Trinity's newest additions during today's (Aug. 26) 8 a.m. Divine Service.

There also will be an opportunity to get to know the new staff members a little more during a cake reception in the Fellowship Hall after the 8 a.m. service.

WELCOME

If you are visiting Trinity for the first time, we would like to welcome you. If you desire more information about our faith family, please make note on a welcome card. It is our prayer that you will have a close walk with the Lord and will return to worship with us again.

FREEZER MEAL

Trinity Lutheran's Freezer Meal Ministry Team will be having a meal preparation event today (Aug. 26), beginning at 4:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Everyone is invited and welcome to come and prepare freezer meals for those who may be in need. You don't need to sign up to attend. You don't need to bring anything with you – just yourself. If you have any questions about Sunday's event, please contact Annette Casad.
