

Join us in welcoming our newest members at the Sunday morning, 8:00 worship!

Heather and Larry Coronell reside in Davenport with their children, Corbin (16), Kaden (9), Kinley (4), and Cash (1). Larry is the owner of Champion Property Management and Heather is a homemaker. Corbin, Kaden, Larry, and Heather like fishing and baseball. Kinley attends Trinity's 3-year-old preschool program. They learned about Trinity online and the family atmosphere drew them to call Trinity their spiritual home. They usually attend Saturday evening Worship. Formerly, they attended St. James Lutheran Church in Rock Island, Illinois.

Suzanne Dengler resides in Davenport. She retired from the Metropolitan Medical Lab billing department after 21 years. Formerly, she attended Immanuel Lutheran Church in Davenport. Suzanne enjoys going to her grandchildren's baseball and softball games. She most often attends the 10:30 service. Suzanne learned about Trinity through Bev Baker, whom she met through Linda and Darryl Brasch. Bev was kind enough to invite Suzanne to a worship service, and she has been attending ever since.

Nick and Sierra Divarco live in Davenport with their dogs. Sierra formerly attended Bethesda Lutheran in Morrison, Illinois and is a Second Grade teacher at Trinity. Nick works at AVG Automation. They enjoy taking their dogs for a walk and watching movies.

Kathy Koenig formerly attended Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Denver, Colorado. Kathy formerly worked at Colorado Connection Academy, an online K-12 public school serving all the state of Colorado. Currently, she lives in Davenport and is working with Genesis Health at the Division Street Family Practice as a receptionist. Kathy likes to crochet, swim, paddle board, and spend time with her nieces. She learned about Trinity through her family, Amy and Jeff Koenig. Trinity feels like a family and everyone here has made Kathy feel welcome. She usually attends the 8 am service.

Jessica and Steve Merritt and their children, Hannah (13), James (7), and Eli (5), live in Davenport. Jessica and Steve formerly attended St. Johns. Steve is a VTC Tech on the Arsenal and Jessica is a stay-at-home mom, she also subs at Trinity and is an improve comic. They learned about Trinity in 2015 when they were researching preschools for James; they were drawn to the family-like atmosphere and feel comfortable here. Steve loves music and is a drummer for two local bands; Jessica has been a performer at Comedy Sportz for 12 years. They usually attend the 8 or 10:30 service.

Larry Teig is also being publicly received today. Larry lives in Davenport; he previously was a member at Holy Cross Lutheran, Davenport.
